Kallah Torah

Milisa has spent over 18 years volunteering at CBS. Her first volunteer “position” was Mitzvah Day in 1997. Milisa and her husband, Steve, chaired that event even though their son, Jacob, was only a few months old. Milisa states, “I have continued until today and that is how I have met so many wonderful people in our community”. She currently serves as the Programming VP of Beth Shalom Sisterhood and the synagogue’s Youth Committee chair. Some of the other positions Milisa has held with the SH are Education VP, Recording secretary, Membership VP and Torah Fund Chair. She has also served on the board of Beth Shalom synagogue and on the parent committee for the Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center. Milisa and Steve have been the recipients of the Arthur Brand Leadership Development Award in 2004.

She attended KU and graduated with a degree in Business Administration. Milisa quit working fulltime 15 years ago and that’s when she began volunteering more of her time. She also is an active volunteer in the community with NCJW and her children’s schools. She is married to Steve Flekier, and they have three children: Jacob, Abby & Andrew.

Gratitude Begins at Home

Part of my ritual in preparation for the High Holiday season is to do an inventory of those events and people in my life for which I am grateful. To both open one’s mind spiritually and one’s heart emotionally, an “attitude of gratitude”, is often the first step.

There are so many people who help make our High Holidays meaningful and joyful. Our maintenance team, headed by Bob Copeland, works long hours in two locations (the JCC and Lamar Ave.) for the entire holiday season. We have countless volunteers who are ushers, learn Torah readings, lead services and help with the children’s programming. Judy Jacks Berman, Stef Williams and Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda and their staffs work hard to create meaningful programming for all ages while still running our year-round programming. Elaine Levine, our Executive Director, and Martha Hoffman scramble like mad each year making all of the logistical arrangements for the holidays from parking to security to flowers, while at the same time getting tickets to every one of our members – as well as new people in our community seeing what Beth Shalom is like. Our entire support staff is also doing a great job of managing the day to day operations of our synagogue, while simultaneously planning for the biggest days of our calendar.

There is one team, though, that I want to draw special attention to – our security team. These officers come to so many programs and services throughout the year, and we are so grateful for the service they provide us in helping protect our security.

What you may not know, though, is that they are actually part of a much larger, community-wide approach to security. All of them are directed and supervised by Blair Hawkins who is our Jewish community’s Director of Security. With decades of experience with military security, local law enforcement, and private security, Blair provides outstanding oversight and support for these off-duty police officers who help us week in and week out.

I also have a request – when you see our security officers on Shabbat morning and holidays, please thank them, greet them, offer to get them a plate of food from the Kiddush line. But please, do not give them direction on how to do their job and where they should be stationed. They are receiving instruction from Blair and our interjections only confuse this.

So, before we begin the High Holiday season, I’d like to say thank you. Thank you to all of the staff who have worked so diligently for months. Thank you for all the volunteers who roll up their sleeves to make our congregation as welcoming as possible. Thank you to all of the Torah readers and prayer leaders who have spent time learning. And thank you – yes, you. Without each and every member of our community coming together for the holidays, we have a piece of ourselves missing. Shanah Tovah! Best wishes for a sweet new year!

Rabbi David M. Glickman

We Honor Our Wonderful Gabbayim

On Shabbat morning, September 19, we will be honoring all of our gabbayim during services in Goldsmith Hall, and following services a special Shabbat Kiddush is being sponsored in their honor. The entire congregation is invited to join us for this very meaningful morning as we acknowledge the important role this group of lay leaders provides for our congregation.

Gabbayim are an essential part of Beth Shalom’s synagogue worship as well as the entire fabric of our congregational community. Their dedication helps to make our tefillot-worship services—both warm and meaningful. They are the men and women who guide our congregation through lifecycle events, both joyful and painful.

Each Torah service has two gabbayim, a “speaking gabbai” and a “nonspeaking gabbai.” No matter which role a gabbai fills, we couldn’t do it without them.

Parashat Hashavua

Parashat Hashavua is an ongoing monthly program that takes place on every third Shabbat of the month at 9 am in the Board Room. The goal of this program is to engage its participants in a stimulating discussion of the Weekly Torah Portion in a friendly atmosphere, where the difference of opinions is respected, and questions are encouraged. The participants enjoy the deep level of discussion and Kabbalistic insights into the text. The next session is September 19, when Parashat Vayeilech will be discussed. Everyone is welcome.

Executive Speaking

A Look Back at 5775

5775 has been a successful year for Beth Shalom, and I would like to highlight a few successes. I’m pleased to report that ten new families have joined CBS since Pesach. We have more students enrolled in the Rose Family Early Childhood Education program than we budgeted for. And remember in my last column, I reported on record numbers at Tot Shabbat and Shabbat Kids club? We are attracting members, many of whom are young families. And our educational programs for children are drawing enrollees, both members and non-members. I’d call that success!

We now have more than 30 active committees, with dozens of engaged congregants participating. This fall we plan to host one Sunday breakfast in Goldsmith Hall, which will be open to the congregation, followed by meetings of most of the committees. In this way, we can all learn what each committee is doing, and more importantly, we will offer opportunities for congregants to choose a committee to engage with.

As President, I always focus on our finances, which are in good shape. Refinancing our mortgage has resulted in lower monthly payments. Our Cabaret fundraiser was sold out, and achieved our fundraising goal. And as you recall, we exceeded our goal of raising funds in last year’s High Holiday Appeal – we all generously gave $94,000 to our kehillah. Can we do it again this year? Could we, dare I say it, raise $100,000 in our High Holiday appeal!? I don’t see why not. If each of us gives just five percent more than we gave last year, we’ll get to that goal, and we’ll invest in supporting the needs of our new and existing members alike.

5776 looks like a great year at Beth Shalom. I am really looking forward to meeting our new members, kvelling in the work of our committees, and knowing that we are meeting our members’ goals for meaningful experiences of prayer and spirituality, congregational education and engagement in congregational communities. L’Shannah Tovah,

Norman Kahn, Jr.

Membership Recognition Luncheon

Please join us on Tuesday, October 13th, for our Membership Recognition Luncheon when we welcome new members into our Sisterhood. We will begin at 11:00 am with our exciting program where we will be making challot in various shapes. Several well-known cooks will demonstrate challah making and help us make our own challot.

Each attendee will be taking home her own challah. Lunch will follow the program. Invitations will be sent out in the mail, so watch for those! Luncheon cost is $18. For more information contact Milisa Flekier; mflekier@gmail.com, 913-681-9298 or Staci Kahn; kenjmom@kc.rr.com, 913-681-0212. We look forward to seeing you on October 13!

Book Club Meets October 28

Sisterhood Book Club will meet on Wednesday, October 28 at 7 pm at the home of Gerre Minkin. The club will be discussing The Lazarus Project by Aleksander Hemon. On March 2, 1908, nineteen-year-old Lazarus Averbuch, an Eastern European Jewish immigrant, was shot to death on the doorstep of the Chicago chief of police and cast as a would-be anarchist assassin. A century later, a young Eastern European writer in Chicago named Brik becomes obsessed with Lazarus’s story. Brik enlists his friend Rora—a war photographer from Sarajevo—to join him in retracing Averbuch’s path. To attend, contact Linda Lessner at llessner@kc.rr.com or 913-897-0122.

Volunteers Help the Community

As the High Holidays approach, volunteering in our greater community gives all of us a good feeling and is an easy mitzvah. Sisterhood members volunteer at Children’s Place, Ronald McDonald House, and Safehome. We also knit or crochet rectangles for our “famous afghans” which we donate to people who are in need. To join, contact Dini Freed- Community Service VP- dinibeth@kc.rr.com or 913-469-0021.

Adult Education Opportunities

The Sarah Peltzman Adult Education Classes sponsored by Sisterhood will begin on Thursday, October 29. More information to come. Contact Phyllis Abrams at 913-217-7060.

Editorial Comments

Peter and I, our children; Neil & Cathy and Felice & Josh, and our grandchildren would like to wish the entire CBS community L’Shanah Tovah Tikatevu. We hope this year will be one of good health, happiness and involvement in our kehillah - sacred community. We have several different worship services for the High Holidays, and I hope that everyone will find a service that is personally fulfilling. New programs, events and classes are on the horizon this coming year. Our popular Sukkot Under the Stars service and dinner will be held October 2. Plans are already underway for a fantastic dinner dance on December 5. Many more events are on the way.

Visit The Sisterhood Gift Shop For Your High Holiday Needs

The Beth Shalom Sisterhood Gift Shop is your one stop shop for all your High Holiday needs. We have kittels, apple and honey plates, shofars and anything else you desire to bring in the new year. Need a great hostess gift? We have those, too.
A Special Invitation to Our Congregants and Friends

As I write this, it is still early August. I am busy preparing for the opening of our Polsky Religious School, and I am spending time preparing and practicing for the High Holiday services. I am reflecting on a wonderful summer, and on the awesome days we are headed towards. But I am also planning a simcha that I look forward to sharing with all of you.

Since arriving here in Overland Park just two years ago, you have opened your hearts and your homes to my family. You have made us feel welcome here and have made the transition from New York City to Kansas City feel seamless and completely natural. It is because of all of you that we are so happy here, and we hope that you will join us on Shabbat morning to celebrate together, to meet our families, and to share Kiddush lunch with us after services.

Children's Festivities for Sukkot

There will be a young-family program on the first two days of Sukkot- Monday and Tuesday, September 28 & 29. Beginning at 11:00 am on each of these days, Rabbi Glickman will lead services for our young families in the Library Reading Area.

Following services, there will be a kid-friendly Kiddush luncheon in the sukkah. Along with our world-famous pizza bagels, there will be cookie decorating on Monday and cupcake decorating on Tuesday. Rabbi Glickman requests that all children bring their favorite stuffed animal to services on Monday. On Tuesday everyone is invited to bring a kite for flying after lunch.

Reservations for both days need to be turned in by Sunday, September 20 to Stefanie Williams, and the first 20 people to RSVP for both days of Sukkot will receive their own lulav and etrog to take home after services on the second day. For more information, contact Stef at 913-647-7269.

Sukkot Under the Stars

Please join us for services on Friday evening, October 2, at 6 pm as we continue our celebration of Sukkot! Weather permitting, we will have services under the stars, followed by dinner! Please reserve your spot for this fabulous feast at bethshalomkc.org. For more information, contact Stefanie Williams at swilliams@bethshalomkc.org. Reservations are due to Stefanie by September 25th.

High Holiday Services for Our Youngest Congregants

The High Holidays are just around the corner, and we are providing services for our youngest congregants and their parents. Our service will last 45 minutes and will start at 9:00 am in the Chapel at the Jewish Community Campus. This service will be held on both days of Rosh Hashanah: Monday and Tuesday, September 14 and 15 and Yom Kippur: Wednesday, September 23.

Once again Jamie Diamond will be here leading services for our youngest congregants and their parents. This service will feature singing, stories and Lizzy, the amazing puppet, and it is perfect for ages one to five. Jamie, a Kansas City native, attended and graduated from the Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy. She participated in the Jewish Theological Seminary’s dual degree program with Columbia University in New York. After receiving bachelor degrees in Bible and Psychology, she continued her studies at the Seminary to receive her Master’s Degree in Jewish Education. She is currently the Nadiv Educator at the Heilicher Minneapolis Jewish Day School.

Watch for great holiday young family services for Sukkot and Simchat Torah in the synagogue eblast!

Falafel Sliders

Ingredients:
- 2 1/2 cups garbanzo beans (cooked chickpeas from a can)
- 1 small bunch parsley (about 1 cup chopped)
- 1 small bunch cilantro (about 1 cup chopped)
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon chili powder or cayenne pepper
- 2 teaspoons cumin
- 2 tablespoons flour

Directions:
Combine ingredients in a food processor until a paste forms. (it’s ok if it’s slightly chunky that adds to the texture of the falafel) The flour is meant to bind the ingredients and hold it together. If it falls apart when frying up add more flour to the batter. Using an ice cream scooper, fry up balls of falafel mixture in a small amount of oil until both sides are lightly browned. (flatten down the ball gently when you flip it over to cook the other side. This will create the burger shape) Serve with hummus on slider buns. Optional, add sweet chili sauce!

CBS Receives Program of the Year Award

Congregation Beth Shalom received the Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City’s 2015 Program of the Year Award for Rimon: Family-Friendly Worship. The Program of the Year Selection Committee was very impressed by the work that Beth Shalom is doing and they wanted to recognize our efforts to encourage others to develop programs that are creative and make an impact on our community.

The Program of the Year Award recognition will be part of the Jewish Federation’s Annual Meeting, which will be held on Thursday, September 3, 2015 in the Lewis and Shirley White Theatre at the Jewish Community Campus. The event will begin at 7:00 p.m. Approximately mid-way through the program the awards will be presented and we hope all of you will all join us.
