Jewish Love: Valentine's Day meets "Fiddler on the Roof"

Valentine's Day – much like Halloween – is a holiday that has begun taking over our stores for more and more time each year. As it looms larger in our cultural landscape – and many of us are decades removed from premade valentine cards and candy hearts – it is worth looking at how Valentine's day is in sync (or out of sync) with our Jewish values.

The holiday itself has its roots, as its name implies, in the history of the medieval Christian martyr, Valentinus. It is still on a number of church calendars, and Jewishly you can make an argument in either direction whether or not Jews should – according to a strict interpretation of Jewish law – celebrate the holiday at all. Instead of focusing on this aspect, I'd like to focus on the type of love that the holiday celebrates in our culture and if this vision of love is compatible with Judaism.

What I think is positive about promoting "Valentine's" love, is a reminder that romance is a necessary ingredient to a loving relationship. This is a very Jewish idea. The sheva be-rachot read under the chuppah describe the couple as re-im ahuvim, "beloved companions." The images of Song of Songs describe a passionate love that is sensual, emotional and physical. The Jewish wedding ceremony includes a public religious ceremony under the chuppah, but it also includes a very private, intimate moment called "yichud" where the couple has private time together after the public ceremony.

There is a negative aspect about the American Valentinization of love. It creates a false picture that love should be romantic, passionate, roses and love letters – all the time. This is, quite frankly, unrealistic. Ask any couple who has been married for more than fifty or sixty years. The language of the ketubah is decidedly unromantic. It speaks to the day in and day out obligations that provide a safe home for both partners. It is not unlike the love from Fiddler on the Roof's song "Do you Love Me?" written by lyricist Sheldon Harnick. ("After twenty-five years, I suppose I love you too...") Passion and security. Romance and tedium. Valentine's day and "Fiddler". We need it all.

Friendship comes in all shapes and sizes...

There is so much written on what makes a warm and welcoming congregation; but the overwhelming conclusion to the studies is its members. As staff, we try to welcome all visitors, and we are happy to show people our synagogue and tell of all the best attributes that we have to offer. This is all well and good, but it's what they experience after they join that seals the deal for new members; it's what gives them the feeling they have chosen well by joining us. Most new members attend services or come to some of our events; at this point welcoming them becomes all of our responsibility; both for the staff and for you, the congregation.

The very first new member impression must be the best impression. Did anyone make an effort to ask the name of a newcomer, shake hands and say, "welcome"; spontaneous acts of kindness count. Each synagogue has its own signs and vibes, although not as clear or blatant as that. These signs are read in the faces of the congregants around them. Are they faces of members who are glad to be here, too? We have to remember to ask new congregants to sit with us or join us at a table for Kiddush lunch or better yet start a new friendship. Friendships come in all shapes and sizes. Age does not define a friendship; common interests and personality does.

As we begin 2015, let's all reach out to the unfamiliar person in our midst and make them a friend. So in love and friendship, go my wishes to each of you for a year filled with promise, good health, and happiness.

Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center

Judy Jacks Berman, Director | jjb@bethshalomkc.org | 913-647-7287

Our Incredible Preschool

We need to shout from the rooftops that CBS has the most incredible preschool in the Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center. We welcome students from noncongregant as well as congregant families.

Parents, grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and alumni can serve as our ambassadors and help us tell everyone about our school. Word of mouth is the most effective publicity, so tell people who have young children about our school.

If you know of a family who does not know about us, please have them call me for a tour, or give me their name, email address and phone number. I will be glad to let them know about our great school.

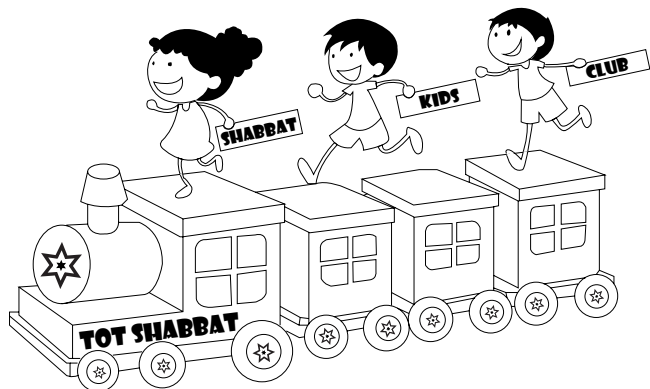

Before we turn around, it will be time for camp enrollment. Summer camp plans are underway, and we promise our campers will have the best summer ever! Our camp dates are:

First Session: June 8 - June 26:
Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Second Session July 6 - July 31:
Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.
Camp is for children who are 18 months by June 1st through 5 year-olds.

Fall enrollment will begin soon. Preschool is also for children who will be 18 months by Sept 1. We also have a parent-baby class for children who are 12 months by Sept 1.

Please call Judy Jacks Berman at 913-647-7287 to schedule a tour or for more information.

Shabbat Kids' Club & Tot Shabbat

Shabbat Kids' Club and Tot Shabbat will be held on February 28. Both Tot Shabbat and Shabbat Kids Club will begin at 11 am with a "pre-service nosh". Tot Shabbat will then meet in the lower library reading area, and Shabbat Kids' Club will meet in Room 114. The two groups will come together for Ein Keloheinu and go upstairs to Goldsmith Hall for Adon Olam. ## Torah Fund Campaign

Joyce Shapiro, Marlene Lerner, Bev Newman, Linda Bell, Gloria Sher, Shira Wajcman

This year's Torah Fund campaign of Women's League for Conservative Judaism is underway. We have had a very generous response to the Chayei Olam appeal, gifts of $180 and above. Now is the time to focus on contributions that will help us reach our suggested WLCJ goal of $16,000.

Torah Fund is now in its seventy-second year of raising money to educate laity and train congregational professionals. It supports projects and scholarships at the Jewish Theological Seminary in New York, the Ziegler Rabbinic School in Los Angeles, the Schechter Institute in Jerusalem and the Seminario Rabinico Latinoamericano in Buenos Aires.

Please respond generously to your solicitation letter which is in the mail or to a phone call. Did you know that many employers match charitable contributions such as Torah Fund? Please ask if yours is one of them.

The Torah Fund luncheon is Tuesday, April 7 at Congregation Beth Shalom. All contributions must be paid by April 1 in order to be acknowledged in the luncheon program. For more information, please contact Gloria Sher, 913-499-8260 or gloriasher1205@gmail.com.

Warm Up America! Project Is On The Move

Warm Up America! participants Peggy Simons, Anita Daniels, Carol Yarmo, Davida Pessen, Ruth Kaplan and Nora Dubin are shown "ooing and aahing" over some of the new colorful yarns they will use to knit or crochet rectangles that are sewn together to make our wonderful afghans.

Contact Carol Yarmo for information on how you can be a part of this worthwhile project at 913-642-1199 or carolyarmo@kc.rr.com.

Our Sisterhood's Warm Up America! project is on the move doing great things for those in need. Alice Bordy recently delivered two of Sisterhood's Warm Up America! handmade afghans for a raffle at Jewish Vocational Services. Over a 6 year period the WUA project has donated more than 120 of these beautiful and warm afghans to Jewish Family Services, SafeHome, Ronald McDonald Family Room, Jewish Vocational Services and the Wounded Warrior Project.

You Are Wanted & Needed

The synagogue yearly congregational calendar/directory for 2015-16 is being restructured. We are looking for assistance from our congregants to help with its production. If you are interested in contributing your time and energy for a worthwhile project and working with some great people, please contact Bev Newman, Sisterhood President at shpres@bethshalomkc.org or 913-338-3441.

Tu B'Shevat Is Here

It's Spring! Doesn't it feel like spring?... What? It doesn't feel like spring? But it's Tu B'Shevat on February 4, the official start of spring...in Israel!

Why do we celebrate the start of springtime in Israel? Jews all over the world celebrate Tu B'Shevat – and I believe that in a way, Tu B'Shevat is even more important for us in the diaspora than it is for Israelis, to remind us in the depths of winter that Jews everywhere have a home in Israel. Tu B'Shevat may in fact be quite a minor holiday, the new year of the trees, but it is one of the holidays that ties us in a very material way to the land of our ancestors. It is nothing but sweet and nutty and fun, full of songs and fruit and juice; it is a holiday that turns our thoughts and our hearts towards Israel and starts us thinking of the rest of spring, and of the holidays that are rapidly approaching – namely, Purim and Pesach.

Boy Scout Troop 61 News

Boy Scout Troop 61 Remembers Their Own...

We wish to remember Don Weinstein, 75, lifelong Boy Scout and Commissioner with Troop 61, recently passed away. When his son, Steve, joined Troop 61, he became a leader and Commissioner of the Troop. His greatest joy was working with generations of scouts and Troop 61 for the past 38 years. He served on the Executive Council of the Heart of America Boy Scouts. He was also a member with distinction in the Tribe of Mic-o-say where he achieved the rank of Keeper of the Wampum. Don was a key member to the success of Troop 61, and he will be greatly missed.

Scout Shabbat

Boy Scout Troop 61 will host their annual Scout Shabbat on Saturday morning, February 21, 9:30 am, in Goldsmith Hall. Members of the troop will lead services and read Torah and the Haftorah.

The following Scouts will be honored for earning their religious award in the past year: Danny Albee, Cub Scout Pack 3153 has earned his Maccabee Award for boys in 1st and 2nd grade. Daniel Ginsburg and Mathew Saper, Boy Scout Troop 61, have earned their Ner Tamid Awards.

A Kiddush luncheon in honor of all Scouts and Scouters will follow services. All past and current Scouts are invited to join us.

Steppin' Out Welcomes Victor & Penny

Remember to come and bring your friends to a fun evening of entertainment with Victor & Penny, antique pop music duo, on Sunday, February 15 at the next Steppin' Out program for CBS and all Sisterhood members, singles and couples, 60 and older. Dinner begins at 6 pm. Your check made payable to Steppin' Out is your reservation. Please mail your check for $12 per person, along with your contact information, to CBS, Attn: Steppin' Out, 14200 Lamar, Overland Park, KS 66223. Deadline for reservations is February 6. ## Community - Wide Purim Seudah

On Thursday, March 5, the Jewish community will hold a Purim "Seudah" (a festive Purim meal) at 10:00 am at Village Shalom. The celebration includes a Purim-sing-along, interactive study, continental brunch, assembling Shalach Manot gift bags and optional Megillah Reading. Members of the Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City will lead the program.

Attendance is free, but participants are encouraged to bring a canned good for the JFS Food Pantry. The Seudah is sponsored by the Rabbinical Association and Village Shalom and generously supported by the Flo Harris Supporting Foundation of the Jewish Community Foundation of Greater Kansas City.

Advance reservations are required. If planning to attend, please call 913-327-4622 or send an email to afprogram@aol.com or no later than March 1. Indicate the number of people attending and the name of each person. For additional information, visit kcrabbis.org.

Yahrtzeit Callers Needed

Do an easy mitzvah and make four to five phone calls a week. Rita Shapiro is the new "Yahrtzeit caller coordinator". She needs weekly callers to remind congregants of their yahrtzeits and to see if they will be attending our morning minyan. To become a caller or for more information, contact Rita at rshapiro11@kc.rr.com.

The Talmudic tractate Megillah (7b) states: Rava said: A person is obligated to drink on Purim until he does not know the difference between "cursed be Haman" and "blessed be Mordechai".

In the spirit of Purim, here are a couple of cocktails recipes:

Peach Bellini

Ingredients:
2 oz peach nectar
1 tsp fresh lemon juice
1 oz peach schnapps
3 oz chilled, dry Champagne
1/2 cup crushed ice

Directions:

Mix the peach nectar, lemon juice and schnapps in a chilled glass. Add half a cup (or more) of crushed ice, stir, and add the champagne. (Serves 2).

Bloody Mary

Ingredients:
1 and 1/2 oz. vodka
1 and 1/2 oz tomato juice
1 dash lemon juice

Directions:

Rim glass with old bay seasoning. Shake well with cracked ice and strain into an old fashioned cocktail glass with an ice cube.
