From the Rabbi's Study

Why I Love Inconvenient Holidays

Rabbis are notorious for their corny, nerdy, rabbinic sense of humor. I am sorry to tell you I am not different. One of my favorite responses that always elicits a groan is when someone asks when is a Jewish holiday. I respond with the Hebrew date.

“Rabbi, when is Rosh HaShanah this year?”

“The first of Tishrei – just like it is every year.”

This year, we will all hear lots of complaints about how “early” the High Holy Days are. We will, though, hear precious few complaints about how late Labor Day is. This makes for interesting trivia games, like the fact that this year will be the only time EVER in human history that Thanksgiving and Chanukah overlap.

There is a bigger idea here though, that is critical in how we consider our Jewish identity. The bigger idea is that the Jewish calendar has its own schedule, and it does not conform to what is convenient for us.

We have the blessing of keeping time by two clocks and life by two calendars. It allows us to see the world through unique lenses of perspective and be both insider and outsider simultaneously.

If we only choose to celebrate or observe that which is convenient, we lose that tension. Inconvenient holidays “out” us, and force us to tell our children, our coworkers and ourselves that there is something greater than our typical routine. If we put a holiday on the “day that works best so the most people will come,” we are not forced to prioritize.

So, be grateful for the inconvenience, and use it as a jumping off point for a conversation about how we create priorities in our lives, how we choose and when life is more important than convenience.

Shalom,

Rabbi David M. Glickman

This year we are offering you the option to either give to the General Appeal Fund, or to direct your donation to a specific area of need. Donations may be made in one of the following ways: 1) Send in the bottom portion of the High Holy Day Appeal letter that will be mailed to you at the end of the month; 2) Donate online at www.bethshalomkc.org; or 3) Place a sticker on your High Holy Day ticket indicating your pledge amount, and give it to one of our designated "Appeal Collectors" during Yom Kippur services.

Thank you in advance for supporting the 2013 High Holy Day Appeal! The funds raised will impact every area of synagogue life. For more information or questions, please contact Jennifer Paul (High Holy Day Chair) at jpaul@kcpaul.com or 913-851-9880.

Religious School Transitions this Fall with Hazzan Ben-Yehuda

Many years ago, I dreamed that I would live in New York City for a few years, and then, after I had learned all I could from the Jewish Theological Seminary, I would leave New York for "somewhere in the middle of the country."

These are the words I actually said to friends and family when I first came to New York.

Little did I know that by the time I left New York, I would have completed three different programs of study at the Seminary, and that I would find my dream job pretty much smack in the middle of the country! It is the realization of my dream and a tremendous blessing that my daughters and I are now part of the Beth Shalom community. Thank you so much for bringing us here!

As your Director of Congregational Learning, I will be directing the Polsky Family Religious School. I have been learning about what the school has been, and envisioning where our school is headed in the future. Exciting programs, inclusive classrooms, engaging educators and opportunities for parents to learn alongside or parallel to the school children are on the agenda. Opportunities for families of HBHA students to participate in meaningful educational and Shabbat programs are high on my to-do list.

As the school year begins, I hope that you will stop by my office to say hello, or drop me an email. I am very much looking forward to getting to know you, at the shul, over coffee or over a meal. Let's get together very soon!

Kayitz tov - continue to have a wonderful summer!

Recap of the Congregational Meeting

Although we had a wonderful turnout for our Congregational Annual Meeting on July 1st, there were several of us that were traveling or otherwise could not attend. I promised that I would devote the space of this article for a recap of the meeting for those who could not attend.

In our first order of business, we elected the nominated slate of Officers and Directors. I am excited to work with our new members of the Board- Chuck Gasser, Dayna Gershon, Jason Krakow, Dana Schwartz and Shira Zigler.

I reported on the status of the sale of the Wornall campus. On July 8th, our sale to Van Trust closed for a final sale price of $2,352,500. This was $150,000 less than the original contract with the buyer as a result of the discovery of larger than anticipated asbestos abatement costs to be incurred by the buyer in the demolition of the building. I once again thank Mark Eisemann and Ron Coppaken for their hard work in the sales process and to Mike Rogovein, Chuck Gasser, Elaine Levine and our custodial staff for the hours of hard work they spent removing our important items at Wornall and preparing the building's contents for sale.

Gina Kaiser presented a preliminary report of the Facilities Committee of the Strategic Planning Group. Gina explained that the committee consisting of Ron Goldsmith, Joel Goldman, Bob Palan, Alicia Klein and Josh Sosland are studying a variety of options for the optimum facilities' location and configuration for our congregation. As a part of that process, the committee will be seeking input from the congregation through surveys and focus groups. When the committee concludes its work, it will make its recommendation to the Board of Directors.

As always I am available and glad to discuss any of these topics or any shul topics or questions. I hope you have a restful and fun end of summer.

Tzedakah is the Hebrew word for acts of kindness, i.e. giving aid and money to the poor or to other worthy causes. The word tzedakah is derived from the Hebrew root Tzadei-Dalet-Qof, meaning righteousness, justice or fairness.

Editorial Comments

Peter and I and our family wish the entire CBS community a L'Shanah Tovah. The High Holy Day Season is a time of renewal. It is a time to renew our lives and strive to be better people. At CBS we are beginning a new year with a new Director of Congregational Learning and new learning opportunities for both our children and for us. We also begin a new year with fewer expenses for our congregation and the ability to implement new programs.

I encourage everyone to be a part of our exciting new beginnings in the coming year. Renew your commitment to CBS.

An Adult Ed Opportunity

Would you like to discuss the weekly Torah portion with other congregants? The monthly Parashat Hashavua group will meet Shabbat morning, August 17 at 9 am in the CBS Board Room. This ongoing opportunity takes place every third Shabbat of the month. For more information, contact Svetlana Sorkin, 913-488-9042. All are welcome.

Homemade Crepes or Blintzes (Parve)

Ingredients:

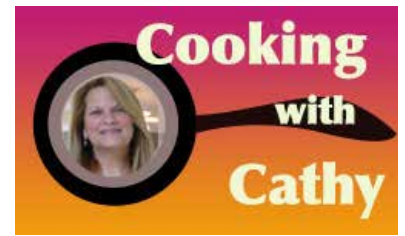

- 3 eggs
- 1 1/4 cup of water
- 1 cup flour
- a pinch of salt

Preparation:

1. Mix eggs and water. Mix flour and salt in a separate bowl.
2. Whisk flour mixture into egg and water mixture until smooth. The batter should be thin. If it is too thick, add some more water. If it is lumpy, let it sit for 5 minutes and whisk again.

3. Spray a non-stick frying pan with non-stick cooking oil spray. Heat the pan over medium-high heat.
4. Pour just enough blintz mixture into the hot pan to lightly cover the pan. Rotate the pan so the batter covers the whole bottom.
5. When the crepe starts to pull away from the side of the pan, slip a spatula under it and turn it out onto a plate to cool. You only need to cook the blintz on one side. No need to flip it.
6. Continue steps 3, 4 and 5 above, until all the batter is gone, stacking the blintzes on top of each other on the plate.
7. Fill the crepes with your choice of filling and fold or roll them over the filling. Kids like Nutella or jelly for a great treat. Adults like sauteed mushrooms, mashed potatoes, or cheese for a festive appetizer.

Our Community

Day of Discovery

Mark Your Calendars for "Day of Discovery – Explore the Joy of Jewish Learning in Kansas City" at the Jewish Community Campus on Sunday, August 25. Study with the community's finest Jewish educators, rabbis and cantors leading sessions on a wide range of topics.

Registration and continental breakfast begin at 8:45 am. Study sessions begin at 9:30 am. Lunch will be served from 12:15 – 1:00 pm and a dessert reception will conclude the day. Registration starts in early August.

The program is co-sponsored by The Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City, Jewish Community Center's Department of Jewish Life and Learning, CAJE/Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City, Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy, Village Shalom and area congregations.

For more information, visit kcrabbis.org or contact Annette Fish, Program Director, Rabbinical Association of Greater KC, afprogram@aol.com or 913-327-4622.

Selichot program

This year's community-wide Selichot program will begin with a dessert reception at 8:15 pm, Saturday, August 31, at Congregation Beth Torah, 6100 West 127th Street.

After Havdalah, which will begin at 8:45 pm, three vignettes excerpted from the award-winning play The Gates are Closing by Merle Feld, will be presented as staged readings by local actors. Each vignette will grapple with issues of communication, trust, forgiveness, repentance and reconciliation-- themes appropriate to the Selichot service. After each, a panel of rabbis will offer personal responses related to teshuvah and the Days of Awe.

The Selichot service will begin at 10:10 pm, led by local rabbis along with Beth Torah Music Director, Linda Sweeney, Cantor Sharon Kohn and a community choir. Members of the Jewish community who have an interest in being a part of the community choir should contact Linda Sweeney, Music Director at Congregation Beth Torah, lsweeney@beth-torah.org or 913-498-2212. Vocalists should have choir experience and be available for two rehearsals on August 19, 7:30-8:15 pm and August 26, 7:30-8:15 pm.
