This is a community event, so please invite your friends! Join us for a wonderful evening of great music by Julie Geller followed by a night time snack. Bring a blanket to cuddle on. The cost is $10 per family to join us. This also provides a chance to win a giant teddy bear! Additional raffle tickets are available for $1 at the door. Donations can be made on the Beth Shalom Website or in our school office. This year, our goal is to raise $10,000 to help expand and enhance the school's existing programs. Please donate to support our preschool!

Julie Geller is saving the world one song at a time with original, uplifting and positive songs in English and Hebrew. She has been releasing one new music video a month for a year and-a-half, and her music has been featured in the Jewish Week, JW Magazine, The Inter-mountain Jewish News, and many other publications. Julie has released five CDs and performs around the country for both adult and family audiences. She is a graduate of Harvard University and New England Conservatory of Music and she studied at Bar Ilan University and Midreshet Lindenbaum in Israel.

Beth Shalom Welcomes Visiting Scholar Rabbi Amy Eilberg (For Schedule, see page 2)

The annual Kaplan Scholar-in-Residence weekend in conjunction with Sisterhood Shabbat will be held February 6 and 7. Our visiting Scholar is Rabbi Amy Eilberg, the first woman ordained as a Conservative rabbi by the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. She currently teaches at United Theological Seminary of the Twin Cities and directs interfaith dialogue programs for the Jay Phillips Center for Interfaith Learning in St. Paul, MN. In her new book, From Enemy to Friend: Jewish Wisdom and the Pursuit of Peace, published by Orbis Books in March 2014, Rabbi Eilberg blends ancient Jewish sacred texts on peacebuilding, real-life descriptions of conflict engagement—interpersonal, interreligious, intra-communal, and international—and contemporary conflict theory.

Milisa Flekier and Berenice Haberman are co-chairs for the weekend. Each year Women's League for Conservative Judaism marks its anniversary on the Shabbat closest to the date in 1918 on which Mathilde Schechter, wife of JTS Chancellor, Solomon Schechter, founded our organization. The weekend will include Friday evening services, a Shabbat dinner prepared by Sisterhood members and Shabbat morning services in which Sisterhood members and young women will participate. The weekend will conclude Saturday evening with Minchah/Seudah Sh'lishit/Ma'ariv and Havdalah. The weekend activities are subsidized by the Abe and Catherine Kaplan Fund and Beth Shalom Sisterhood. Invitations and details have been mailed. The cost for the Friday night Shabbat dinner will be $12 per person. Reservations are due January 16th. If you would like to help with dinner preparations, please contact Milisa at mflekier@gmail.com.

From the Rabbi's Study

In Praise of Inconvenience

One might think that we should try to make Jewish living as convenient as possible. After all, so much of Jewish living bumps up against many current trends in popular culture.

Shabbat candle-lighting is fixed according to sunset, and is rarely convenient. Finding kosher food is a difficulty. Services for some of our most meaningful and joyful holidays are often at the most inconvenient times – weekdays, late nights, early mornings, etc.

This seems to fly in the face of a world where Starbucks has a shop on every corner, and Amazon can deliver whatever we want in 24 hours and we can shop for anything in the world from our computer.

However, the most convenient things in life rarely make memories. Think about how sleep-deprived we were when the Royals were in the playoffs from all the late-night games. Recall adolescent adventures of waiting in line for tickets, or driving hours for concerts. Try to remember when you sought out those hard to find museums or restaurants unique to a special city.

For things in life that are the same, convenience and cost are most important. For the aspects of life that are filled with meaning, unique, special – and memory making – the inconvenience actually adds to the experience.

This is why I encourage families to stay up late with their kids for Jewish experiences. When bedtime gets pushed aside for Purim or a Passover Seder, when you get to go into school late because you were at Sukkot services, when you take time to find that unique holiday food – you tell your children that whatever you are engaged in is REALLY important. So, instead of avoiding Jewish inconvenience – embrace it. After all, is there anything meaningful or important in life that's easy and convenient?

Executively Speaking

Why the Minyan Is So Important

Can we imagine our congregation without daily minyan? When we read that question, do we react with discomfort or apathy?

When a congregation grows to a certain size, it prioritizes at least having its own rabbi, cemetery, and daily minyan. We've recruited our favorite rabbi and extended his contract. We're endowing our cemetery. And, we're in a challenging period maintaining our daily minyan. But, we are stepping up to meet this challenge.

There are prayers we can say alone each morning on arising; praising God and thanking God for renewing our life. Why is a minyan so important every day? We cannot read the Torah Monday and Thursday mornings without a minyan. Of course, congregants can hear the Torah read on Shabbat.

We cannot say the Mourner's Kaddish without a minyan. After the death of a loved one, it is our culture to observe the period of mourning through participation in daily minyan. Having experienced this myself, I came to realize the powerful effect this had on my period of mourning. I now understand how Jewish practices assist in restoring to health deeply mourning family members. Jewish mourning takes a community, a minyan.

As happens in cycles, several regular members of minyan have recently finished their period of mourning, and while they come periodically to support others, they no longer come regularly. We have begun to frequently miss having daily minyan. Mourners cannot say Kaddish for their loved ones. If we put ourselves in their shoes, we can imagine how we would feel if we were deep in mourning and could not say Kaddish.

Fortunately and lovingly, four of our kehillot, our sacred communities, have been asked to step up to join in resolving this crisis. Our Sisterhood, Men's Club, Library Minyan and Board of Directors have accepted responsibility for at least two volunteers one day each week to join the kehilla of daily morning minyan. To all the members of these congregational communities, thank you.

USY Winter Shabbaton

The annual winter Shabbaton will be held January 23 – 25 at our very own CBS. USYers will be leading services throughout the entire weekend and will be participating in the congregational Chinese Shabbat Dinner.

This year's theme will be the Wizard of Emtza. Though details are still being worked out, preliminary plans revolve around comparison to the Kansas City Royals and the fact that, though they did not win the final game, the way they played as a team was admirable and inspiring. They epitomized the old adage that with so many things in life, it is more about the journey than the destination. So stay tuned for more details as co-chairs Adena Goldberg and Sophie Shapiro, along with their committee, construct an impactful weekend for the attendees. Since visiting USYers stay in congregants' homes, please contact Stef if you would like to host any of our guests.

Wounded Warriors and Warm Up America! Join Forces

The Wounded Warrior project is a military veterans' charity organization empowering injured veterans and their families. Carol Yarmo, Community Service Vice-President displays the Wounded Warrior plaque that was recently sent to thank the participants of Warm Up America! project sponsored by our sisterhood. Nine beautiful handmade quilts were presented as door prizes at the Grand Opening of the local Wounded Warrior Office which serves young men and women (in their 20's and 30's) from the surrounding area who were wounded in the current wars in Afghanistan and Iraq. The WUA goal was to show how much we thank and appreciate what the warriors and their families have done for all Americans. Our WUA project has donated over 75 afghans to various organizations over a six year period. We welcome new participants who wish to join us to knit or crochet rectangles. We meet the first Wednesday of every month from 10 am to 12 pm at CBS. For more information, contact Carol at 913-642-1199 or carolyarmo@kc.rr.com.

SH Book Club Meets Feb. 11

is torn between duty and temptation, security and freedom, and must make a choice that will break either one heart, or many."

Do A Mitzvah

In the depth of winter, how do we brighten our days? When we wake up in the dark and return home in the dark, what do we do to keep our spirits high and our faces bright? When memories of winter break fade and spring vacation seems so far away, what can we do to give ourselves something to look forward to?

We can commit ourselves to doing something kind for others! We can spend half a day in pursuit of mitzvot, of doing something that not only are we commanded to do, but something that will make us feel amazing while we are doing it because it will help others.

On Sunday, January 18, you are invited to spend the morning, together with our CBS community of families, making cookies and treats and decorating bags in which we will put these treats. We will learn about the mitzvah of feeding others, and we will then deliver boxes of these bags of goodies to the Ronald McDonald House, food banks and shelters in our area. The morning will begin with a community t'fillah (service), and then we'll start cooking and baking. This Mitzvah Day is in honor of the memory of the Reverend Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., who continues to inspire us to be aware of the suffering of others. I hope you will join us!

Parent/Teacher/Student conferences are on Wednesday, January 21 for grades 3-7. Students are invited and encouraged to attend. There will be sign-up sheets for specific times at the synagogue at the school desk. Please speak to Jill for details.

Yahrtzeit Plaques Available for Sale

A perfect way to honor the memory of a departed loved one is with a yahrtzeit tablet. The person's name is cast into the bronze tablet along with the Hebrew date of death. Each year, on the anniversary of the yahrtzeit, the rabbi will read your loved one's name. All yahrtzeit tablets for each week are displayed in Goldsmith Hall. Each tablet is $360 and forms are available in the office. If you are interested in purchasing a tablet please contact Elaine Levine: elevine@bethshalomkc.org or Martha Hoffman: mhoffman@bethshalomkc.org.

Cemetery Committee Reached Out to Congregants and Supporters of Mount Carmel.

Keeping up the grounds and maintaining Mount Carmel for future generations are ongoing issues facing the Cemetery Committee, chaired by David Sosland. They meet throughout the year and work with the staff to improve many aspects of this sacred ground.

There are also volunteer clean-up days chaired by Bruce Luchen and attended by congregants, non-congregants and members of Boy Scout Troop 61 which have helped to improve the cemetery.

The committee recently sent out a mailing asking for monetary assistance. Your support of Mount Carmel preserves the past of Congregation Beth Shalom and helps insure its future.

Steppin' Out on February 15

Sunday, February 15, is the next Steppin' Out program for CBS and all Sisterhood members, singles and couples. (As always, your friends are welcome to attend.) The evening begins at 6 pm with dinner in Goldsmith Hall followed by entertainment from the antique pop duo, Victor & Penny. "With a fiery ukulele, a red-hot jazz guitar and tight vocal harmonies, Victor & Penny put the swing, the jump, the stomp and the roll in prohibition-era jazz and clever original tunes." In addition to appearing in numerous venues in the metro area, during the last two years, the duo has traveled more than 80,000 miles throughout 28 states appearing in festivals, clubs, and private engagements.

Deadline for reservations is February 6. Your check made payable to Steppin' Out is your reservation. Please mail your check for $12 per person, along with your contact information, to CBS, Attn.: Steppin' Out, 14200 Lamar, Overland Park, KS 66223. For further information, contact Linda Lessner, llessner@kc.rr.com or 913-897-0122.

Editorial Comments

The month of January begins with the secular New Year. We jokingly make resolutions such as: we are going to lose 20 pounds, we are going to work out every day or we are going to eat a more healthy diet. But on a serious note, do we make any resolutions concerning our observance of Judaism? Have we come to weekday minyan lately? Do we come to Friday evening Kabbalat Shabbat services? What about Shabbat morning services? Have we made plans to attend the Sisterhood Shabbat/Kaplan weekend, February 6 & 7 where we will be treated to the wisdom of Rabbi Amy Eilberg? Do we take advantage of all our synagogue has to offer? Maybe we need to rethink this resolution business and give it some serious consideration.
