From the Hazzan's Study

Purim Is A Time for Laughter!

Click on the Hazzan & Listen To Stop: Right Click, then Disable Content

When did we learn that Judaism is serious business? When did we become convinced that in order to draw closer to God we had to grimace and cry and cower? When did concentration on God come to mean a furrowed brow rather than a smile? At Sinai, we beheld God and we were afraid.

The Torah does not provide a model of levity for us. Rather, we are told that God is awesome and dangerous. Where is the laughter? Where is the joy? Count the number of times we dance for joy in the Tanakh. Not many.

Megillat Esther is different. It is humorous, ridiculous, impossible. It institutes a holiday which is joyful and playful. It is a reminder that the way to God is not a path of broken glass, but can be light and fun. Why not? Like so much of our tradition, the kernel of truth has been surrounded by fences protecting us. Reverence for God has been extended to be reverence for everything religious, making play impossible, making lightness of heart an aberration. At some point, someone interpreted the wait for Mashiach as a weight for Mashiach, and Judaism became painfully heavy.

Throw off that weight! Purim is coming and it's time to remember that the world may not be what we think it is. It's time to laugh.

Transition Progress Update...

Ritual Committee Update

5772/2011 Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur services will take place at the Jewish Community Campus, allowing two simultaneous services and youth activities to accommodate the entire Beth Shalom community. While the Lamar building will be our ritual home, we recognize that we will need to provide alternate locations for events which exceed Lamar's capacity.

Arrangements are being finalized for options for B'nei Mitzvah which are estimated to exceed our capacity. These details will be shared first with B'nei Mitzvah families from August 2011 through July 2012.

The subcommittee evaluating the daily minyan location, led by Steve Flekier, is exploring options and will have a recommendation for the ritual committee and board later this spring. Check the Beth Shalom website for updates.

Spring Kallah is the final regional convention of the USY year. We get to say goodbye to the graduating class and share in their memories about their years in USY, take part in regional elections and receive chapter awards. Some of our favorite memories were going to Spring Kallah knowing no one and then sharing a cabin with 14 girls who became some of our closest friends! As it is a smaller convention, it feels as if we have a great opportunity to get to know everyone! We travel Thursday night, so we can start first thing Friday morning and we have lots of time for the amazing programming that takes place over the weekend! One of the best things about USY is that it is youth led. Because the programs are created and led by our peers, they are always engaging and awesome!!

KCUSY has been lucky enough to have representation on the regional board for over the past 12 years! It is so important to have representatives on the board so our voice is always easily heard. This year, we have two executive board members and two of our chapter board members running for the upcoming year! It's so much fun – please come (April 14-April 17 at Lake Doniphan in Excelsior Springs, MO) support our chapter and have a fun, Jewish weekend!!! Click here for registration forms. valuable time with their grandchildren. A slow walk in the park, looking for/at bugs, snakes, birds, different flowers, etc. is a joy for both children and grandparents. Creating scrap books, recording stories in writing or on videos, cooking together or going to a special place can be an afternoon well spent and

Rabbi Adam Stein, Scott Zigler, Shira Zigler & Orli Zigler

Hilary Clinton reminded us that "... it takes a village to raise a child." However, within that village some people play a more important role than others. Parents are the primary care-takers, role models and directors of a child's life. Grandparents, too, can have a most important role; and luckily it is a win-win situation. Because grandparents are not as rushed and do not have all the responsibilities of parenthood, they can provide a respite for parents and spend long remembered. Psychologists say that material things last in one's mind for up to nine months, but experiences can last a lifetime.

Share your grandchild's or special "little" person's day with them on Friday, April 1 for toddlers and mini-school children and Friday, April 8 for PreK and 3 year olds. Start making memories NOW.

Do A Mitzvah!

The Lechem Committee will be serving lunch at the Hot Lunch Services, Inc. food kitchen on Thursday, March 31. If you wish to volunteer either to cook in advance or to help at the kitchen, please contact either Marcia Eveloff at 913-491-1904, marcia29@att.net or Sandi Lerner at 913-888-7644, sandilerner@everestkc.net at least one week in advance so that assignments for each area of the kitchen can be covered. Instrumental or singing entertainment would be fun and welcomed by our guests.

As a staff project, CBS staff prepared and served lunch in January at Hot Lunch Services, Inc. Plans are in place for our additional staff members to serve at a later time. Pictured: Hazzan Menes, Rabbi Tobin, Rabbi Stein, Andi Wildman, Pam Fite, Jill Goldstein & Patti Kroll

Campaign dates are March 14-April 8. Please return your completed ad form to CBS by April 8 to reserve your preferred spot. All congregants should receive an ad form in the mail. It will also be available on our website at www.bethshalomkc.org. Click here to view and print ad form.

Need help with your ad? Your ad can commemorate a special occasion or advertise a business. Our creative staff can design any ad for you! Contact Harryette at 913-851-3814.
