Volunteer Shabbat to Honor Volunteers and Kovod and Brand Recipients

Join us at Beth Shalom on Shabbat morning, December 10, 9:30 am when we will celebrate and honor our many volunteers and our award recipients. Watch for more information on the CBS website and in the December Scroll.

Jeff Blackman Named Kovod Award Recipient

Jeff Blackman

Jeff Blackman has been named the 2011 Kovod Award winner and will be honored at Volunteer Shabbat on Saturday, December 10. A most deserving honoree, Jeff leads daily minyanim as well as shivah minyanim with the same cheerful demeanor with which he approaches all his involvement at CBS.

A relative newcomer to Kansas City, Jeff and his family, wife Corrine and children Rebecca, Michael and Sarah, arrived in K.C. from the East Coast in 1996. They were brought to the area by an employment opportunity. Unfortunate circumstances forced the business to close; Jeff credits the support of the CBS community with helping deal with and work through this crisis in his life. He now works for Sprint in customer care.

The death of his father in 2000 was the impetus behind Jeff's involvement with the daily minyan.

He now coordinates gabbayim for both Shabbat and daily minyan. Through a chance encounter with Betty Brand, he was asked to work on the Sisterhood calendar, which he did admirably for many years.

Jeff feels he's found a second home at CBS. He's grateful for the warmth and caring he's found here, and enjoys "paying it back" with his frequent involvement with the congregation.

Jen Paul to Receive Arthur Brand Leadership Award

Jen Paul is the 2011 Arthur Brand Leadership Award Recipient. Always willing to help with a smile, Jen Paul loves volunteering at CBS. As a fifth generation member, she is very willing to give back to the congregation that has always been a large part of her life. She has served on the Board of Directors since 2006 and was past Membership Chair. Currently chairing the High Holy Day Appeal, Jen has also served as Co-Chair of Torah Fund and the ECE (Experiment in Congregational Education) Task Force.

Jen Paul

As part of the award, Jen will have the opportunity to attend United Synagogue's next biennial convention, Kallah 2011, aimed at giving synagogue leaders the chance to experience different styles of worship in order to bring those experiences back to their communities. Jen and her husband Steven have three children: Michael, Lindsey and Julia.

The Arthur Brand Leadership Award was established in Arthur's memory in 1999 to recognize and develop new and emerging CBS leaders. As Past-President and Parnas, leadership development was a special interest for Arthur who epitomized the role of community leader. There was not an organization that he had not led at some point and he continued to serve every day of his life. His advice was solid and his guidance heartfelt as he sought and mentored new leadership.

From the Rabbi's Study

Jewish Burial – Being Inclusive

Traditionally, one of the first things founded by a Jewish community was a cemetery. Having a proper place for burial was very important. The Beth Shalom community did similarly with the founding of Mt. Carmel Cemetery around 1890. We are rightfully proud of our Beth Olam (Eternal Home) and the care that is given to it.

While traditionally a Jewish cemetery was exclusively for Jewish burial, this policy has come under review within the Conservative Movement. Due to the increase in interfaith families, there has been a growing demand for interfaith burials. Families in these situations are reluctant to be parted even by death. Having plots for interfaith families has become a priority.

Beth Shalom, like numerous other congregations, made a study of halakhah and related burial practices in other communities. A task force was established during my last year at Beth Shalom. Rabbi Tobin continued that effort under the able leadership of Stephen Kort and the Mt. Carmel Cemetery Chair, David Sosland. After these studies, a decision was reached to designate a section of Mt. Carmel for interfaith burials. It was determined that there is no violation of Jewish law in doing this. The committee established clear guidelines that Rabbi Tobin and the Board agreed upon. I am equally pleased to be able to do so and to take the necessary steps to implement this policy.

With this action, we take another step towards “keruv” (outreach and inclusion). While we are committed to halakhah, we are also aware that change can be made in certain areas and not jeopardize the integrity of Jewish law. We continue to become a more inclusive community and with that inclusivity, we are strengthened. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact either me or David Sosland. For a full statement of the new policy, please contact the Ritual Office.

D'var Akher Shabbat

Understanding Your Service Shabbat which began on Shabbat Bereisheet (October 22nd) has become D'var Akher Shabbat (Another Word/Matter Shabbat). This name expresses the goal of the long range planning process to seek meaningful and engaging forms of prayer for the Beth Shalom family. Members are encouraged to participate in part or all of the morning based on their interest and abilities. The goal is to engage more people by offering a variety of experiences that meet the diverse spiritual needs of our congregation. These options will include the Main Service in Goldsmith Hall and the Library Minyan which will begin at 9:30 am and conclude by 11:30 am. There will also be the B'Yachad Youth Service; Guided Meditation from 10:30 am-11:30 am; Tefillah 2000 from 10 am-11:30 am. Depending on the month, there may also be Tot Shabbat. During each tefillah experience, a different part of the service will be taught and emphasized as well as an opportunity to learn about the movements of Judaism. The parts to be taught are included above next to the dates. At 11:30 am, everyone will convene in Goldsmith Hall for Torah Study followed by Ruach (Spirit), Shabbat Song and Kiddush. Each service will have a guest congregant or community member teaching the emphasized section of the service.

Rock On with PJ Havdalah

On Saturday, December 10 at 6:30 pm, come to Goldsmith Hall in your pajamas for a fun and engaging evening. Leading our PJ Havdalah concert is Joanie Leeds, considered one of New York's finest children's entertainers. She will perform following a brief Havdalah service. As a musical theatre major at Syracuse University, Joanie began composing her own songs. Life clicked into place when she realized that when she was singing with children they transformed themselves into amazing creatures of joy. This concert is generously supported by the Doris Flam and Rose Levine Arts and Education Fund. After the concert a snack will be shared before we say lilah tov. Please bring a blanket for snuggling.

Ray Davidson, Master Challah-Baker!

Mirra Klausner, Ray Davidson & Dini Freed

Ray Davidson came to Kansas City from St. Louis four years ago to be with his daughter, Cathy Levin, after his beloved wife, Frieda, passed away. For fifty years Frieda baked challah every week for her family; after she passed away, Ray opened her recipe box, found the challah recipe and duplicated it. He started baking challah for a congregation in St. Louis, and he continues to do so at Beth Shalom with the assistance of the Happy Challah Bakers: Mirra Klausner, Milisa Flekier and Dini Freed. Together, they prepare challah for Shabbat and the High Holy Days, which is sold to help support the RFEC. So far profits have amounted to over $10,000. Not only does everyone love Ray's challahs, everyone loves Ray. Mlisa and Mirra still return each week to help, even though their children are no longer in preschool.

Challahs are available every Tuesday through Thursday at the Preschool office between 8 am and 12:30 pm; come or call early, because they sell out quickly!

Everyone Has Fun at the RFEC

Executively Speaking

How do we make the spirit of the High Holy Days last and last and last...as Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, Sukkot and Simchat Torah fade from memory, we can look forward to Thanksgiving, which too is a family holiday. It is not traditionally part of the Jewish cycle of events, as I do not believe that the Wampanoag's, nor the Pilgrims were practicing Jews, nor do I for one moment think that they even knew a Jewish person. But, like the Jewish people of long ago and not so long ago, they were displaced, they were a people who searched for religious freedom, for human rights free of persecution, for a new homeland that would offer security to live their lives, and they, like the Jews, soon found out that this is not always an easy feat. They learned to hold fast to the knowledge that one must always follow their hearts, their beliefs, and that perseverance offers its own rewards. So, that being said, why should we not embrace this holiday, why not make it our own, why not add a little Jewish touch. Think about adding a challah to your table, bless the wine, and add your own prayers of Thanksgiving or encourage your children to write their own, give Tzedakah, feed the poor, and make it a day of special memories.

So to each of you... let's give thanks for all we have, for our diversities that make us each so unique, for our wonderful families, our close friends and especially for our extended Beth Shalom synagogue family; by sharing, learning and embracing each other. Together we will overcome all life's hardships and seek happiness.

From my home to yours, Happy Thanksgiving.

It's Time to Explore... Summer 2012 Jewish Opportunities

Give your children a gift of a lifetime by participating in Passport to Israel. From third through eighth grade, money put into this account is matched by funds from the synagogue and the Flo Harris Israel Fund and can be used for an Israel youth trip. The deadline for your family contribution and paperwork for new families must be in the school office by noon on Friday, December 2. For more information, contact Patti Kroll at 913-647-7290.

Wednesday, November 30, 7 pm, Rabbi Loren Sykes, director of Ramah Wisconsin, will meet with prospective and current camp parents and students about the 2012 Ramah summer camp programs at the home of Kurt and Stephanie Kavanaugh. He will speak about the family camp and the 12 day camp for students in grades 3 and 4 as well as other programs Ramah offers. Contact Patti Kroll in the school office to indicate interest in this informational meeting or for more information about Camp Ramah and camp scholarships.

Children thinking of becoming first-time campers at a Jewish residential summer camp in 2012 for 19-days or longer and needing financial assistance to offset the cost of camp should check out The First Time Campers Fund at www.onehappycamper.org. The First Time Campers Fund is a collaboration of the Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City and The Foundation for Jewish Camp. The generosity of The Lowenstein Brothers Foundation of the Jewish Community Foundation and The Jewish Federation make this incentive possible. For more information, contact Karen Gerson, 913-327-8143 or kareng@jewishkc.org.

Special Shabbat Learning Opportunities

On Shabbat morning, November 19, Blanche Sosland will lead a Torah discussion on Parashat Haye Sarah in Goldsmith Hall. This is also the Bar Mitzvah of Noah Abdullahi and will be the second of our D'var Akher (Another Word or Another Matter) Shabbatot. This is a pilot begun in October as an outgrowth of the work of the Long Range Planning Committee to engage more of our congregants in the experience of our tefillot. Each initial Shabbat tefillah on the D'var Akher Shabbat will focus on a different part of the service. In October, we studied the preliminary service. In November, we will look at the Shacharit or morning service.

In December, we will have two guest "preachers." The first, Saturday, December 3, will be Abbot Gregory Polan, the Abbot of Conception Abbey. He is a friend of long-standing with our community and a strong supporter of interfaith efforts. Many of us have had the privilege of being his guests at the Abbey and now we can extend CBS hospitality to him. Reverend Adam Hamilton, the senior pastor of United Methodist Church of the Resurrection (COR) will speak on Saturday, December 17. Rev. Hamilton is also a good friend and one of the leading pastors in the United States. His church is seen as a leader in community service and innovative programming. Both the Abbot and Rev. Hamilton will base their talks on the parashah of the week.

As I See It by Bev Newman, Scroll Editor

The January 12, 1964 Scroll carried comments by Rabbi Morris B. Margolies in his A Word or Two Column concerning the building of the sanctuary at 95th and Wornall. Some of the quotations in that column were as follows:

"The Jewish population is pointed South and will continue to be, far into the future."

"A considerable reservoir of potential members-most of them young married folk-cannot be effectively tapped by Beth Shalom due to the disadvantageous location of its sanctuary."

"The professional and clerical administration of Beth Shalom operates on two fronts and in two buildings. This condition does not conduce either to maximum economy or efficiency."

"Yours truly can only add the fervent hope that all of you will respond with generosity and love during the coming months."

It is often said that history repeats itself. So much of what was stated almost 48 years ago still applies to our congregation today. Hopefully, with our total move to 142nd and Lamar, we can change that history.
