

Shabbat Shel Shalom A Shabbat of Peace, Love and Understanding

Both our congregation and the Greater Kansas City community have the incredible opportunity to meet and enjoy the music of the iconic, Israeli superstar, David Broza, on December 10. Singer-songwriter Broza, one of the world's most dynamic and vibrant performers, is also actively involved in humanitarian projects, promoting peace, love and greater human understanding since the song "Yihye Tov" (Things Will Get Better) first hit the airwaves.

On Shabbat morning, Broza will be our Kaplan Scholar Artist-in-Residence and will speak during services about the background to his lyrics as well as his work with Palestinians for his most recent album. Following services, there will be a special Kiddush Luncheon welcoming David Broza to our community.

On Saturday evening, beginning at 8:00 pm at the beautiful 1900 Building, a Karbank Project, Shawnee Mission Parkway and State Line, we will welcome David Broza to the stage. Joining Broza will be Ali Paris, who has collaborated with Broza before and captivates audiences worldwide with his unique fusion of Middle Eastern and Western music styles. Ali's music education in Arabic traditional music began at a very young age. He was a child prodigy, touring internationally by the age of 12. Besides incredible entertainment, there will be a dessert reception and an open bar.

The entire community is invited to attend this festive fundraiser. Invitations for Saturday evening will be mailed shortly, and reservations for both the Kiddush Luncheon and Concert can be made online at www.bethshalomkc.org. Pricing will be based on seating. Reservations are due December 2. Seating is limited, so reserve your tickets early! For more information, please contact Stefanie Williams at swilliams@bethshalomkc.org or 913-647-7292.

The events are sponsored by the Polsky Jewish Enrichment Series which is funded by the Isadore and Rachel Polsky Endowment Fund of the Beth Shalom Foundation. The fund was established by their children and grandchildren as a tribute to their memory. The Kaplan Scholar-in-Residence Weekend endowed by Abe and Catherine Kaplan and an Anonymous family donation are also sponsoring the weekend.

Voting: It's a Mitzvah

It is easy to take Jewish political engagement for granted. The vast majority of our congregants were born in the United States and have never known any reality other than Jews being politically active.

While yes, it is true that we have never elected a Jewish President of the United States, Jews have served in every other office in the land. We enjoy unprecedented freedom as Jews. We are active in both political parties. It is a rare political cause that doesn't have a list of Jewish donors and activists on its roster of leaders. The number of Jewish members of Congress and the Supreme Court has almost become a joke.

However, as election day nears, there are two things that we have an ethical obligation to remember. First, in the scope of Jewish history, Jewish political emancipation is still relatively new. Secondly, just because we are politically active doesn't mean that every other religious or ethnic minority is.

Countries first started experimenting with Jewish voting rights in the 1740's. Throughout the 1700's, 1800's and 1900's, our rights to vote waxed and waned. Though we were afforded the right to vote when the United States was formed, only 50% (the males) were able to vote from the start.

In Pirkei Avot 3:2, Rabbi Chanina, deputy to the kohanim, would say: "Pray for the integrity of the government; for were it not for the fear of its authority, a man would swallow his neighbor alive".

I agree with Rabbi Chanina's assessment. When the population has no respect for the authority of the government, we will eat each other alive. But I have one big difference with his analysis. I don't think you should just pray for the integrity of the government; I think you should work for the integrity of the government.

Rabbi Chanina wrote this when the Romans ruled over much of the Jewish world, and Jews could only pray for the government's welfare. Today, this rabbi recommends - don't just pray. Get out and vote.

The goal of this program is to engage its participants in a stimulating discussion of the weekly Torah portion in a welcoming atmosphere, where the difference of opinions is respected, and questions are encouraged. The participants enjoy the deep level of discussion and Kabbalistic insights into the text. The next session will take place on November 19 when Parashat Vayera will be discussed. Everyone is welcome.

Executively Speaking

A New Beginning for Us All

Since beginning my term as Interim Executive Director on July 18, I have spent most of my time addressing the most critical needs of our congregational family, while ensuring that the needs of individual congregants and prospective congregants are met. I have had the pleasure of speaking with many of you, addressing an array of problems, issues, and concerns and listening to some excellent suggestions. I trust those who did reach out to me have had a positive experience. I hope everyone feels comfortable with the knowledge that I am honestly doing my best to accommodate everyone.

We are proud of the positive changes that have already taken place in my first 105 days. These include:

- In the RFECEC entry area, we have built a security wall and installed the associated electronics to guarantee only authorized people are permitted in the classroom areas.
- Installation of new carpet began October 31 in the main lobby, Goldsmith Hall, Sisterhood gift shop, and RFECE entry hall to remove the dangerous conditions that currently exist.

- New automatic electronic heart defibrillators have been installed.
- We have contracted with private security to ensure security personnel are on premises whenever our children are present.

I want to thank our outstanding clergy, staff, and Board for helping to make these improvements a reality. And, I want to thank all of you for your support and encouragement as we continue on our journey together in 5777.

Sisterhood and National Council of Jewish Women Collaborate

Mirra Klausner, NCJW Co-President, Carol Yarmo, WUA Project Chairman and Carla Oppenheimer, NCJW Co-President are seen admiring one of the 12 beautiful quilts, each made up of thirty six seven inch by nine inch rectangles that are either knitted or crocheted and sewn together.

Sisterhood and National Council of Jewish Women have joined forces to help young adults aging out of foster care. Our Warm Up America! project has donated 12, unique, hand-made afghans to Council's "Suitcase to Start" project which provides important items to help young adults who "age out" of the foster care system to begin life on their own. Young adults age out of the system from ages 18 to 25 depending upon individual circumstances. The overall message for these young people is that others care about them and wish them well.

For more information concerning Warm Up America! contact Carol Yarmo, 913-642-1199 or carolyarmo@kc.rr.com or Carla Oppenheimer, 913-451-3696 or coppenheimer@kc.rr.com.

Butterflies in the RFECEC

I'm sure you know about the lifecycle of a butterfly and thanks to Eric Carle, most of your kids do too. Our RFECEC preschoolers had the opportunity to study the life cycle of a painted butterfly first hand. Each classroom watched as their caterpillars quickly grew and molted into a beautiful butterfly. Retired elementary school teacher Barbara Fields visited each classroom to discuss and share pictures of each stage of the painted butterfly's life.

Because these insects like sugar water, Miss Barbara put a drop of Gatorade on each child's finger. Taking turns, the children used their finger to lure a butterfly from its cage and watched in awe as it flew away to begin life in its natural habitat. Reading a book about a nonfiction topic is great, but to be able to observe and experience something, like the lifecycle of a butterfly, first hand is magical.

What is New at Beth Shalom

As I write about Cheshvan, I am still in the midst of Tishrei. Trying to put myself in the mindset of "all the holidays are behind me now," is not so easy. But, I know that in a few short weeks, I'll be looking forward to Hanukkah, and feeling like the Fall holidays are so far behind me.

This year, November is the month of calm between the High Holidays and the time leading up to Hanukkah. It is a time when I encourage you to come together and see what we have to offer at shul on a weekly basis, starting with our new Sunday breakfast program. All PRS families, and anyone else who wants to join us, are invited for breakfast at 9:00 am followed by community tfillot (prayers) to start the Hebrew School day. A warm and inviting atmosphere and delicious food has helped make the attendance high.

Join your Beth Shalom family at the weekly Sunday Breakfast program and the weekend of December 10 at the David Broza Shabbat programming and concert you can read about in this month's Scroll.

Cholent Recipe

This recipe is compliments of cateress, Cathy Levin, and was shared with attendees at a recent Sisterhood program.

Ingredients:

- 1 cup beans (any kind soaked overnight in water or canned beans)
- 1 1/3 cups diced onion
- 9 cloves of garlic - 1/2 crushed and 1/2 whole
- 3 oz. barley
- 1 teaspoon paprika
- 2 shakes of cayenne
- 9 oz. chopped canned tomatoes or 1 14oz can
- 1 celery stick diced
- 2 carrots diced
- 1 turnip diced
- 2 white potatoes cut in chunks
- 1 1/3 lbs beef
- 2 1/2 cups water
- 1 1/2 cups beef stock

Directions:

Saute onion and chopped garlic for 5 minutes. Add all ingredients to a crock pot or stock pot and add salt and pepper to taste. Make sure the water and broth cover all ingredients and cook on low all night for Shabbat or cook on top of the stove for 3 to 4 hours on low.

Sisterhood's A Nite at the Movies

Sisterhood is presenting its fourth annual "A Nite at the Movies" on Saturday (6:30 pm after Shabbat), December 24, at the B & B Theatre 16 at 8601 West 135 Street in Overland Park. Bring family and friends to join us for a fun evening with door prizes, a newly released movie in our own private auditorium and a small popcorn and soft drink. Ticket prices for Donor level are $25 each, and $60 Sponsor level includes 2 individual tickets.

Does this year's original musical, "La La Land," represent being out of touch with reality or does it portray Los Angeles and Hollywood? Sebastian (Ryan Gosling), a jazz pianist falls for an aspiring actress, Mia (Emma Stone), who serves lattes to movie stars in between auditions. Sebastian scrapes by playing cocktail party gigs in sleazy bars, but as success escalates, both are faced with decisions that begin to unravel their love affair, and the dreams they worked so hard to maintain in each other threaten to tear them apart. It's refreshing to see a totally unique film, especially one that grasps the nature of Hollywood and Los Angeles in such an original way. For a trailer of "La La Land," go to <http://www.lalaland.movie/trailer>.

The schedule for the evening is: Seating- 7:00 pm; Door Prize Drawings - 7:15 pm; Movie- 7:30 pm. The proceeds of the movie event will benefit synagogue, community service and education projects.
