Congregation Beth Shalom Simchat Torah Honorees Chatan Torah and Kallat Bereishit

This year Ernie Rosenthal, Chatan Torah, and Amy Schultz, Kallat Bereishit, will be honored as Congregation Beth Shalom volunteers on Simchat Torah morning. Please join us on October 22 at 9:30 am in Goldsmith Hall as we celebrate with our honorees.

Ernie Rosenthal has been an active member of Beth Shalom since he and his family returned to Kansas City in 1985. He served as Chair of the Budget, Scholarship and Membership Retention Committees, and previously was a member of these committees, as well as the Youth, Administrative, Audit, Ritual, Lechem, Chesed, Cemetery and School Committees. He served on at least one of the Rabbi, Assistant Rabbi and Executive Director Search Committees, coordinated High Holiday Honor Assignments, and assisted the Generation-to-Generation Campaign. Ernie is also an active member of Kiddush Corps.

Ernie has been a member of the Executive Committee of the synagogue and an officer of both the synagogue and the Beth Shalom Foundation. He relinquished his position as an Officer of the congregation for a nine-month period in 2004-2005 to serve as Interim Executive Director. Ernie then served as President of Beth Shalom from 2006-2008, and as Immediate Past President from 2008-2010. Since 2014 he has directed the High Holiday Appeal, and has coordinated the Cemetery Solicitation since 2012.

Ernie received his Bachelor of Science in Education from the University of Kansas, and his MBA from St. Mary's University in San Antonio while serving as an Air Force officer evaluating the effectiveness of U.S. electronic countermeasures in the air war over Vietnam. After being discharged from the Air Force he went to work for 28 years at Electronic Data Systems, where he worked as a Systems Engineer, a Proposal Manager, a Financial Analyst, Corporate Manager of Personnel and Compensation, a Customer Account Manager and a Regional Manager. Ernie and his wife, Susan were married at Beth Shalom in 1966. They have two sons, David and Daniel, two daughters-in-law, Cara and Janna; and four grandchildren, Emma, Ben, Sara and Eli.

Amy Schultz is currently Sisterhood VP of Education. In that role she is the project chair for the Peltzman Educational Series and Sisterhood Shabbat. She also serves on various Sisterhood committees. Amy also serves on Beth Shalom's Ritual Committee and plays an active role in High Holiday planning. She serves as a Beth Shalom Mashgiach and regularly participates in the Kiddush Corps. She is also a board member of the Vaad HaKashruth.

She enjoys volunteering at Ronald McDonald Family Room, Safe Home, and with the Lechem Committee, which helps to feed the hungry at Wilhelmina Gill Multi-Service Center. Amy also enjoys helping in the Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center and at Polsky Religious School as well as volunteering at HBHA. She is a member of NCJW and Hadassah.

Amy is a graduate of the University of Kansas where she earned a degree from the School of Social Work. She worked many years as the Social Work Administrator/Co-Coordinator at Social Work p.r.n. and at Sasone as a para-professional. She has worked with children in religious schools at synagogues in Kansas City for 30 years, 25 of which have been at Beth Shalom.

She has had many adult Jewish educational experiences. She studied at The Center for Technology in Tel Aviv, is a Melton graduate, and is a Kohelet Fellowship graduate from Yeshiva University's Jewish Learning Institute.

Amy is a fourth generation Beth Shalom member. She grew up at Beth Shalom, attending the preschool and religious school. She celebrated her Bat Mitzvah, participated in Confirmation, and held board positions in both USI and USY. Amy and Eric Schultz were married at Beth Shalom and are the proud parents of two children, Jared and Nina.

Impermanence is the Source of Meaning and Joy

On Sukkot, the Talmud teaches us that during the festival we should “exit our fixed dwelling, and live in our temporary dwelling – which is a sukkah.”

The very essence of a Sukkah exists in its impermanence. The walls are tarps, the roof is made of branches, and the Jewish law proscribes that it need only be strong enough to withhold a normal wind (not a strong gust).

Yet, the time of Sukkot is known in our tradition as zeman simchateinu – the time of our joy.

We spend so much of our income on our rent or our mortgages. This doesn't even begin to count for house repairs, furniture, and upgrades. Our entire adult life is spent saving, spending, investing in our “fixed dwelling.” But if we want to experience true joy – we need to leave it and go to a hut.

The reason is, dwelling in the sukkah reminds us that a house, an apartment or a condominium is actually no more permanent than a sukkah. Yes, it provides greater protection from the elements. Also, I do not want to ignore the fact that there are millions of people in our country who are homeless or home insecure.

However, we should not fool ourselves into thinking that any physical dwelling is permanent.

Spirituality comes from the recognition that any pain and any joy is fleeting.

Sukkot comes after the High Holidays with the very powerful reminder that our days are limited. To appreciate this impermanence the most – we must strip ourselves of our feelings of permanence and intentionally put ourselves into an insecure place.

Please come to Congregation Beth Shalom this year – or to a friend's – to sit in a sukkah. It need not be long. Just have a cup of coffee or a piece of cake. Feel the breeze. Smell the branches. Know that this is but one week a year – and we only have a limited number of them.

Life Lesson 25: “Even perfection has room for improvement.”

– Ty Warner

All of us would love to be perfect. Well, I have bad news for us all; none of us will ever reach that milestone. There will always be erasers on pencils. Perfection will always be out of our reach. Perfection may be unattainable, but just because you can't reach something doesn't mean you shouldn't try.

There is nothing in this world that cannot be improved or made better. Every day we are thrilled with the technology we possess. Every day we are in awe with the new technology that is now available. There is really nothing new in the world; we just keep improving and using current resources to hopefully develop a better way to do things.

All the tools and resources we need to create and improve the world today have been with us for millennia. Every day, the human mind finds ways to utilize those resources in new ways to maximize life's potential. As we create new ways of doing things, we find ways to create even more with the knowledge we have gained from years past and the creations and inventions that came before.

“Everything that can be invented has been invented.”

While it is disputed that those words were actually spoken, the quote is attributed to Charles H. Duell, Commissioner of the US Patent Office in 1899. It may seem like there is nothing left to create or improve, but we seem to disprove that sentiment on a daily basis.

We all have hopes and dreams; they can come true. Instead of constantly thinking about them, try to bring them closer to reality. There is nothing about us that cannot be improved. There is nothing we can't learn to help make our lives better. As Lawrence Welk said, “I have a tremendous desire to learn, and to grow, and to develop whatever I have that will make for any kind of improvement in me.”

None of us know where life will lead us. Let's stop saying we can't; let's start saying how can we. I love quoting my favorite author, Anonymous. “My Life is always under construction. There is always something to improve.” Let's start today. Think outside the box. Allow your mind to wander. Allow your mind to go down roads you never thought possible. Travel the road to perfection. You will never get to your destination, but you will have an incredible journey trying to get there.

by HAZZAN TAHL BEN-YEHUDA
hazzantby@bethshalomkc.org

As we enter the High Holy Days period, as I open my machzor again and review all the music, all the words we chant only a few days a year, I find myself transported by the tunes that strike a chord so deep inside me. These melodies and motifs that seem to us to be so critical to the holidays have the power to create feelings in so many of us – feelings of family, of togetherness, of joy or of sadness, of anticipation, of trepidation. The relationship we have to the words is augmented by the melodies, and the relationships we have with each other and with our synagogue are evoked by the melodies.

There was one teacher at the Seminary who counseled us that if we changed up all of the melodies of the Friday night service but ended with Friday night Kiddush in the “right” melody, everyone would go home feeling like it was still Shabbat. But if you came to services on Rosh HaShanah or Yom Kippur and did not hear the “right” melody for Avinu Malkeinu or for the beginning of the evening service, or, God-forbid, for Kol Nidrei you might want or even need to fire the cantor...

Part of my responsibility as your Hazzan is to provide a musical experience of prayer that helps to connect you to the words you are praying and to the occasion on which you are praying. I often thought of the music as the vehicle for the words of the prayer, but the music is sometimes itself the prayer, and the music also has the power to distract us from the words of the prayer.

For the next few months, I will be turning over and over the question “what is the role of music in prayer?” I hope that you will come talk with me or drop me an email about your answer to this question. I know there are many, many answers, and what I will leave you with for now is that in the Jewish tradition at least, public prayer is connected inexorably to musical motifs, and I am very much looking forward to immersing myself in the motifs that are sacred to the High Holiday season.

I wish you and your loved ones a sweet and a happy New Year – Shanah Tovah Umetukah – may you be inscribed for a good and sweet new year.

Fall is here! There are such great fall activities to enjoy with your kids and grandkids!

- My favorite is either build a sukkah during Sukkot and invite friends over to enjoy your sukkah!
- Or if you don't build one, visit someone's sukkah to enjoy a snack in a sukkah.
- Children learn best and engrave memories in their brain and hearts by experiencing activities with a loved one!
- Go to the farmstead and enjoy learning about animals with your child.
- Go apple picking and make applesauce!
- Pick different types of apples and choose your favorites!
- Rake leaves and jump in them and enjoy!
- Go to the cider mill and enjoy apple cider!
- Go on a picnic.
- Most of all, play outside and enjoy the beautiful weather!

Happy, healthy, sweet New Year!

Wishing all of you a Shanah Tovah Umetukah, A Happy Sweet New Year!

Prayer Partners

“Start off the New Year with prayer and meditation. Prayer Partners is a group that prays for those who are ill in our community and for their caregivers. After those prayers we ask for healing and blessings for ourselves. Be sure to mark Wednesday, October 23, 2019, as our next meeting in the Beth Shalom Conference Room. We hope you will join us.”

Sisterhood Book Club October 23, 2019 | 7:00 PM

Sisterhood Book Club will meet on Wednesday, October 23 at 7:00 pm at the home of Merna Siegler. The club will discuss “Kaddish.com” by Nathan Englander.

“When Larry’s Orthodox father passes away, his religious sister Dina insists that he take on the responsibility of saying Kaddish every day for 11 months. Larry, however, has ceased to be religious. He doesn’t want to attend daily minyans for 11 months, so he trolls the internet until he happens on a website called ‘kaddish.com’ where he can hire an Orthodox scholar to recite the Kaddish for his father.”

For more details or to attend, contact Linda Lessner at 913-897-0122 or at llessner@kc.rr.com.

Sisterhood Gift Shop

Don't forget--we have appropriate wedding, B'nei Mitzvah, anniversary and birthday items for your perusal. Please come in and view our newest items for hostess gifts, additions for your holiday collection, etc. We support Sisterhood and some funds are provided to our preschool. So keep us in mind for special events.

Parashat HaShavua is an ongoing, monthly program taking place every third Shabbat of the month at 9:00 am in the conference room. The goal of this program is to engage its participants in a stimulating discussion of the weekly Torah portion in a friendly atmosphere, where the difference of opinions is respected and questions are encouraged.

The next session will take place on October 19, when the PARSHA OF THE WEEK: KI TISSA will be discussed. An informal atmosphere and deep level of discussion are the trademarks of this gathering. No prior experience is required, and everybody is welcome to join.
