

Home for the Holidays

Please visit <https://www.bethshalomkc.org/2020/08/hh/> to access the following service experiences. Anything which is underlined is the clickable link.

We are so excited to offer many different options for our High Holiday services this year.

Below you will see all the ways we can connect.

Key of descriptions:

"Mahzor" – The mahzor is the High Holiday prayerbook. There are three ways that you can get our High Holiday prayerbook, Mahzor Lev Shalem:

– Borrow one from us! Come by our Family Photo Shoot, gift box and prayerbook drive-thru. Pick-up options are on September 9th and 13th. Click here to register!

– Download a digital Mahzor Lev Shalem for free! Beth Shalom has purchased hundreds of digital copies for you to use from a device. To access the digital mahzor, please go to <https://issuu.com/store/code> and enter the code W86HCS2Y. It will appear that you will be charged $5.99, but when you enter your email, it will automatically email you the link to create your account and use the digital Mahzor, available without a charge.

– Buy your own hard copy. The Rabbinical Assembly has some large print copies available here (Discounted 30% to $50). There are a few regular-size copies available on Amazon.

"Live from Lamar" – These are slightly shorter streamed services led by Hazzan Ben-Yehuda and Rabbi Glickman each day of services.

"Pavilion Services" – We have limited capacity for two services on Rosh HaShanah Day 1 and on Yom Kippur. You must register to attend. These will be more casual services. One will have a more traditional feel and the second a more interactive atmosphere. Click here to register.

"Intergenerational Tefillateinu Services Powered by Shirat HaRuach." These are available for everyone – play on your schedule. Links will be available all day. Featuring Rick Recht, Shira Kline and Rabbi Josh Warshawsky – this service is great for all ages. Available here on the day of the holiday.

"Children's Tefillateinu Services Powered by Shirat HaRuach." This musical service is especially designed for kids. Play on your schedule. Links will be available all day. Featuring Rick Recht, Shira Kline and Rabbi Josh Warshawsky.

"Tashlich" – Just like we have every year, but spread around three different parks so our gathering isn't too big. Come and go as you wish from 3:30 –4:30 pm at these places. We'll have shofar blowers. You bring the breadcrumbs! Links to register below

"Shofar Parking Lot Service" – Drive through (or walk through) to hear the shofar, at the designated time on Rosh HaShanah Day 2. See members of the community, say hi to clergy, hear the shofar!
