

The Mini Scroll

Building For Tomorrow, Today!

"We want to make sure that this gift is consistent with synagogue values and we believe it is. We hope that people will step forward and be generous, and take advantage of this matching opportunity."

- Debbie Sosland-Edelman

"It's important for our kids to experience what we had experienced at 95th and Wornall, to have these big life cycle moments in the new sanctuary."

- The Cohn Family

"We did it because those who came before us created beautiful sacred spaces for us. We owe it to the children, grandchildren who come after us, to do the same."

- Gina Kaiser

"With your help, we will come together, at a place that is worthy of our great history of Beth Shalom, and it will ensure our next generation thinks so too."

- Jason Krakow

"The artwork of the Nelson Atkins could be hung in a mall, the KC symphony could play in a gymnasium, the KC Chiefs could play in any 100-yard field. But these KC gems know that space worthy experience uplifts the experience itself!"

- Rabbi David Glickman

Todah Rabbah! Thank you!

Congregation Beth Shalom is grateful for the generosity of the Goldberg Family Foundation and the Stanley L. and Geraldine Goldberg Family Fund for their recent generous contribution to Congregation Beth Shalom for the Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center.

Our preschool is one of the most beloved and important areas of our synagogue. Our talented staff and Judy Jacks Berman raise the next generation of Jewish leaders – and guide young parents on the path of creating Jewish families.

During the time of Covid-19, our preschool team created an entirely digital, outdoor, home-delivery model for engagement with our families. We were not able to replicate, though, our traditional model of full classrooms.

This one-time gift has helped Beth Shalom make up the entire budget shortfall from lost tuition during the time of pandemic. It has also allowed us to retain our staff and faculty in the preschool so when it is safe to return, we will be ready!

If your family, family foundation, or donor-advised fund would like to make a one-time contribution to help Beth Shalom with expenses incurred by Covid-19, please contact our Executive Director, Stefanie Williams at swilliams@bethshalomkc.org.
