

Healing and Wholeness

A Night Of Learning, Prayer and Song

Tikkun Leil Shavuot 5781 | Sunday, May 16, 2021

Join Congregation Beth Shalom for an enlightening, in-person learning experience. Due to our Covid restrictions, there are limited seats available for this evening. Shavuot celebrates “The Time of the Giving of Our Torah.” We will be outside in our parking lot, with masks. There will be great learning, uplifting prayer and song, adorable swag, and a take-away nosh.

8:15 PM Ma’ariv

8:30 PM Session I

Group Aleph

Saw you at Sinai: relationship creation myths

Dr. JoAnna Slusky, KU Dept. of Molecular Biosciences

8:30 PM Group Bet

Ruth’s Journey: Bold Choices, Extraordinary Risks, and Self-Transformation

Farrah Udell, Jewish Educator at Beth Shalom’s Polsky School, B’nai Jehudah and Camp Sabra

9:15 PM Session II

Group Aleph

What We Learned in Our Caves: Lessons from Covid-19 for the Jewish Community

Rabbi David M. Glickman

9:15 PM Group Bet

Rising Song and Lifting Spirits: Learning Some of Our New Melodies

Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda

10:00 PM Session III

Group Aleph

Re-Entry: Our tradition’s teaching on Physical, Mental and Ritual re-entry

Rabbi Sarah Smiley, The Temple, Congregation B’nai Jehudah

10:00 PM Group Bet

Adventures with a Natural Experiment Hunter: Economics Research on COVID-19

Dr. David Slusky, KU Dept. of Economics

10:45 PM Healing Service

Led by Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda

RSVP NOW