Together: High Holidays 2021 / 5782

Shalom! The past year and a half has been a year of unprecedented pain, loneliness and loss. It has also been a year of unforeseen innovation, capacity for compassion, and creative ways of creating Jewish community that we had never imagined.

More and more people in our community are vaccinated, thank God. We have seen – and I predict will continue to see – that maximum vaccination will provide our best path to being able to gather physically without fear.

This year, we will be having as many in-person gatherings as possible for the high holidays. At the same time, in order to be safe we will be meeting at approximately 50% capacity indoors. Because of this, we will be asking congregants to rank the services that they most want to attend each day of the holidays. We are committed to everyone being able to attend at least one first choice service. We will also be offering livestreaming for both our Lower Level Prayer Space and our Goldsmith Hall. Additionally, there are a number of outdoor gathering opportunities.

We are looking forward to having many of our volunteer leaders joining us for services. Also, we are excited to welcome Rabbi Rafi Cohen, a Kansas City and Beth Shalom alum, who is now the admissions director for the Jewish Theological Seminary Rabbinical School.

This summer has been exhilarating as we have begun to open up more and more. We have celebrated B'nei Mitzvot, we have gathered to honor milestone birthdays and anniversaries, and we have also been able to finally say kaddish physically in person. I pray that these holidays will continue to remind us of the unique connection that comes from sharing physical space together.

I pray that these holidays give you renewal, an opportunity for reflection and healing, and a chance for holy celebration with friends and family.

Below are short descriptions of our different service offerings.

Wishing you an early Shanah Tovah,

RABBI DAVID M. GLICKMAN
dglickman@bethshalomkc.org

Traditional Service: Goldsmith Hall*. This service will be led by Rabbi Glickman and Hazzan Ben-Yehuda on the first day of Rosh HaShanah, Kol Nidrei and Yom Kippur. Rabbi Cohen and Rita Cortés will be leading this on the second day of Rosh HaShanah.

Multi-generational Instrumental Service: Lower Level Prayer Space*. This service was held in the Social Hall at the JCC during the years that we prayed together there. It is about 30 minutes shorter than the Traditional Service. It is led by Rabbi Cohen, a team of volunteers, and group of local instrumentalist musicians.

Rimon Service*. For the past eight years, Rabbi Glickman and Hazzan Ben-Yehuda have been offering this educational and welcoming service on the second day of Rosh Hashanah. Expect a shorter service, some interactive discussion, lots of singing, and (synagogue appropriate) casual dress.

Pavilion Service. Last year we had wonderful ways to connect outdoors. Even though we are returning to indoor prayer, so many people loved the feeling of being together in the open air, we are offering it again.

Family Education Experience. Due to the inability of children under 12 to be vaccinated, we will not be offering drop-off, youth programming. Instead, Becca Levine and a team of our educators have designed an interactive family program that can be experienced by children who must be accompanied by a parent or other responsible adult.

Preschool Service*. Every year, our high holiday preschool services are a BIG DRAW. Parents, grandparents and other favorite adults are invited to join their preschooler for a fun, song-filled service to welcome the Jewish new year.

Tashlikh. Tashlikh is held at a local park to symbolically cast our sins into the water. This service is our community's favorite. Singing, snacks, shofar blowing, and a chance to wish everyone a sweet new year. Families dress casual, bring friends, and often their dogs!

*Services with an asterisk will be broadcast on our website.

Sisterhood

Sisterhood Gift Shop

We will have Mitzvah Garden's honey available again this year. This year's harvest will be held in the garage of Larry and Lois Lehman at 3909 W. 142nd Drive in Leawood from 9 am until at least 1pm. Ken Sonnenschein is extending an invite to everyone in our community to join them anytime.

The 30-50,000 bees of each of the five colonies have been working hard to make honey for all of us to enjoy. The harvest on the 8th should provide well over 200 pounds of delicious honey. Hope to see you there.

In the meantime, if you need anything from the gift shop, please call Mary Weiner at 913-642-9363 or 913-406-9296 for an appointment or Connie can be reached at stltok@gmail.com for information. We will be open again this fall, exact shop hours to be determined soon and put in the Beth Shalom Connect, so look for new hours there.

Our website can be viewed at bethshalomkc.org – go to heading Visit and arrow down to Sisterhood & Gift Shop. We look forward to welcoming you all back. We have new honey dishes, shofars, as well as other new merchandise, so please come in and browse to your heart's content.

Orli Rose Zigler

August 14 / 6 Elul

Orli Rose Zigler is the daughter of Scott and Shira Zigler, and is the sister of Raya Zigler. She is the granddaughter of Marsha Krinsky and the late Seymour Krinsky, z"l, Lawrence and Sheryl Zigler of Chesterfield, Missouri. She attends Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy. Orli enjoys art, dance, soccer and basketball. Orli combined her art skills and desire to help others to draw custom coloring books. She donated these coloring books and crayons to Children's Mercy Hospital. "My hope is that I gave them the opportunity to find something that they love, or just find joy in." Please join the family via livestream (<https://www.bethshalomkc.org/donate/livestreaming/>) to share in their simcha.

Of Blessed Memory We express condolences to our Beth Shalom Members, their Families and Friends.
