CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

AS MANY OF YOU HAVE SEEN, OUR CONSTRUCTION SITE IS BUSY WITH THE INFRASTRUCTURE PHASE OF OUR PROJECT. THIS FIRST PHASE SHOULD BE COMPLETED BY EARLY SPRING. WEATHER PERMITTING, WE HOPE TO SEE THE FOOTINGS BEING POURED AND STRUCTURAL STEEL RISING FROM THE GROUND BY MAY. STAY TUNED FOR FURTHER UPDATES AS WE PROCEED FROM WINTER TO SPRING.

Together We will Plant a Beautiful (Spiritual) Garden

This coming month is one of the most beautiful, and under-celebrated, holidays of the year: Tu B'Shevat. (This year it falls on Monday, Feb. 6, 2023). Tu B'Shevat is the "New Year of the Trees." Tu B'Shevat is a lot like Mother's Day – we appreciate our moms every day, but we celebrate her on one particular day. Similarly, we benefit from trees every day, but we have one day in the year when we celebrate all that we receive from the trees. In recent decades, it has become a holiday for Jewish environmental values.

Planting, gardening, and trees are recurring symbols in all aspects of Jewish life. People are compared to trees, the Torah is called a "Tree of Life," and the very beginning of our Torah can be read as an introduction to understanding Judaism's view on the relationship between human kind and the natural world.

As we approach this year's Tu B'Shevat I encourage you to think about the lifecycle of trees, seeds, replanting and rebirth in relationship to synagogue life. The several years of Covid and its continued recovery can be likened to the tree's life cycle. We have experienced a long winter; and those with immunocompromised bodies are, in many ways, still isolated from it.

For the last 6-12 months we have been in the process of replanting. We have been experimenting with the reintroduction of a Tot Shabbat service weekly (with an enhanced Tot Shabbat monthly). We have been planting seeds for a new Shabbat initiative for early elementary grades called "Shabbat Shelanu" ("Our Shabbat").

We have seen many teens and alumni reading Torah in our Goldsmith service, longtime friends returning to the Library Minyan in person, and the continued energy of our Social Justice Committee which launched during Covid. Additionally, we have been experimenting with finding our footing in reaching our families that live in Prairie Village and KCMO as we continue Ohev Sholom's Shir L'Shabbat service and launched a Melton Course at JFS in Brookside.

All of these new initiatives – and replanting of existing initiatives are the cultivations of a beautiful, spiritual, communal garden.

Outside my window, every day I see the heavy construction vehicles hard at work beginning the task of building our new sanctuary. As I watch, I know that we are not exactly cultivating a spiritual garden – we are in a greenhouse. We are getting the plants, flowers and vegetables ready so that when our garden (the sanctuary) is completed – it will be filled with all of the beautiful spiritual bounty that we have been cultivating in the months and years following the long Covid winter.

Rosh HaShanah in February

by CIVIA WHITE

cwhite@bethshalomkc.org

PRS is celebrating Rosh HaShanah in February! We are so excited about ...Rosh HaShanah La'Ilanot, The New Year for the Trees. This holiday, better known as Tu B'Shevat (the 15th day of the Hebrew month of Shevat) presents a wonderful opportunity for the kids to connect to the ecology of the Land of Israel. Tasting fruit from trees that grow in Israel, learning about the importance of water in the region, and looking at the various agricultural areas of Israel are all part of our PRS Tu B'Shevat lessons. The Jewish National Fund, in addition to planting trees in Israel, provided us with enriching lesson plans and materials for our teachers and students.

FROM THE Education Director

One way to celebrate Tu B'Shevat, which falls on February 6, with your family and friends is to plant a tree in Israel through JNF. Did you know that Jewish National Fund-USA has planted over 260 million trees in Israel? This year there is a competition that can really benefit PRS. Go to jnf.org/tubishvatschools for a chance to win up to $5,000 for our school's Israel-enrichment programming. Thank you for your generosity! Happy Tu B'Shevat.

The New Year Brings Light!

by RABBI BERYL PADORR

bpadorr@bethshalomkc.org

Shalom Chevre, Peace my Dear Friends,

We are entering the new calendar year of 2023. It is a time for making New Years Resolutions in our American culture. It's not like Yom Kippur, when we promise to try to be better human beings, or attend daily minyan more often! Common New Years resolutions are to quit some habit that is bad for us; like smoking, or to establish a habit that is good for us - like taking a walk everyday or to exercise more, perhaps eat more green vegetables and fruits.

We are entering the book of Exodus in the Torah. It seems appropriate for the New Year. We, the Jewish people, leave Egypt and head towards the Promised Land having faith that God will lead us there, not knowing exactly where or what that is. Each year, we leave so much behind that become our memories. Some are wonderful, joyous memories, and some are tinged with sadness. We also look ahead. Many things we take for granted. Some things we know are unknowns. And some things will be surprises.

The Israelites have stayed in Egypt out of fear, but they leave with hope and faith that their journey will take them some place better. There are bumps and curves along the way, but ultimately, through their journey together, they, we, grow together to become the Jewish people.

It takes strength and courage to leave one life and forge ahead to another. Sometimes it is an anticipated change; a child leaving for college, a new baby arriving, marriage. Some are unexpected like learning to live without someone we loved. What ever has been in the days before, and what ever lies ahead, may you face it with hope, courage, and strength in the belief that it will be a Good and Happy New Year.

L'Chayim - to a Happy and Healthy 2023,

Rabbi Beryl Padorr

Beth Shalom Teen Leaders Join Sasone Teen Leadership Training Program

by BEN NOVORR

youthdirector@bethshalomkc.org

The Jewish Federation works in partnership with Sasone, our Jewish community's program that works to ensure children with special needs have support in accessing a Jewish education. They have just launched their first peer-mentoring and teen leadership training cohort, and four of our incredible Beth Shalom teen leaders are taking part in it! Emma Rosenthal, Jonah Stein, Nina McNay, and Hannah Gold are among an elite group of Jewish teens from across the Kansas City area that are spending five sessions throughout the spring 2023 semester together learning best practices and strategies for working with and supporting students and peers with special needs. This first of its kind training is facilitated by Sasone Director and Beth Shalom member, Lindsey Lipsky. If you have a chance, make sure to congratulate Emma, Jonah, Nina and Hannah for taking part in this incredibly exciting program and for investing their time in contributing to our community!

Executive Director's Contract Renewal

In accordance with the bylaws of Congregation Beth Shalom this notice is required to be prominently placed in The Scroll when the contract of a member of the professional staff is coming up for renewal. Please be advised that the contract of Stefanie Williams is now up for renewal. Beth Shalom members may address any comments to Ann Karty, Congregation Beth Shalom, President, 14200 Lamar Ave., Overland Park, KS 66223, or by email to ann.karty@gmail.com. These comments must be received before February 14.

Bar Mitzvah

*Eitan Jacob Gerson
February 9 / 18 Shevat*

Eitan Jacob Gerson is the son of Karen & Jeffrey Gerson. He has an older brother Gilli Gerson. He is the grandson of Jay & Francie Gerson of Dyer, IN. He is the great-grandson of Al & Barb Herstig of Naples, FL. Eitan attends Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy. He is a competitive soccer goalie for Puma Futbol Club, plays soccer & basketball for HBHA Middle School, loves spending his summers at Camp Ramah in WI, and hanging out with his friends and dog Skeye. When the war broke out in Ukraine, he learned about kids, who just like him, have been attending summer camp at Ramah. However, in the summer of 2022, these campers were not able to attend camp in Western Ukraine. The organization Midreshet Schechter safely moved the camp to Romania. He used his earned tzedakah money to help get these kids to attend camp. One of the biggest differences between him and these campers is they are afraid for their lives. He wants them to have the same opportunity to go and be with their summer friends and to forget about their troubles. He would like to continue supporting Midreshet Schechter and Camp Ramah in Ukraine. He is collecting new and gently used blankets. These Ukrainian campers will feel the love from us all wrapped in a soft donated blanket.

Sisterhood

Sarah Peltzman Classes To Resume in Feb.

Our next trimester of Sarah Peltzman classes will begin on Thursday morning, February 2. New this year—we meet in person in Goldsmith Hall, from 10-11:30 each morning for a light brunch followed by learning. This trimester, our classes will focus on Midrash from the book of Exodus and will be led by Hazzan Ben-Yehuda. If you have not already enrolled or would like more information, please log on to our Beth Shalom website and look for “Peltzman 22-23” to register. If you have questions, contact Jill Goldstein, Education VP, at jgoldstein0127@gmail.com or at 913-636-9725. If you are already registered, we look forward to seeing you in February.

Beth Shalom Sisterhood Shabbat

The entire congregation is invited to join the Beth Shalom Sisterhood on Shabbat morning, February 4, as we celebrate Sisterhood Shabbat. Services will be held in Goldsmith Hall, beginning at 9:30 am, and will be entirely led by our Sisterhood members. Torah readers that morning will include Hazzan Ben-Yehuda, Mari Anne Birnbaum, Dini Freed, Dani Glickman, Leah Haller, Sarah Stras & Shira Wajcman. The Haftarah will be read by Suzanne Lange. Honorees will include new Sisterhood members, Gift Shop Volunteers, officers and others. A Kiddush luncheon, sponsored by Sisterhood, will follow services. For more information, or to take part in the service, contact Jill Goldstein at jgoldstein0127@gmail.com.

Of Blessed Memory

We express condolences to our Beth Shalom Members, their Families and Friends.
