The New Year Brings Light!

by RABBI BERYL PADORR

Dear Chevre, Dear Friends,

Chag Purim Sameach, Happy Purim! Mi she'nichnas Adar, Marbim B'simcha – When the month of Adar comes in, increase your joy.

Soon it will be Purim when we dress up in costumes and drown out the name of Haman with our groggers, pots and pans, macaroni and cheese boxes, and whatever we have when the name of Haman is read in the Megillah.

We dress up in costume, and everything is turned topsy-turvy, turned upside down.

The Learner's Minyan is a chance to turn things around and go from not being so clear about the Shabbat morning service to having a better understanding of the service flow, content, and choreography. It is an opportunity to become more comfortable and familiar with the service. You might even find something new at our Learner's Minyan even if you have been coming to services for a long time. It is an opportunity to ask your questions about the service. And we love when others share their knowledge.

During March, Adar on the Jewish calendar, as you prepare for Purim: to listen to Megillat Ruth, share your food and drink with friends, family, and those in need, you will consider coming to Learner's Minyan which meets the first Saturday morning of every month through June, 9:30 – 10:15 in the conference room. Then join the congregation in Goldsmith Hall for the Torah reading, the remaining service, and lunch with an opportunity to schmooze with congregants.

Mi she'nichnas Adar, Marbim B'simcha – When the month of Adar comes in, increase your joy.

Let the Learner's Minyan be an opportunity to increase your joy with the service and the community.

Chag Purim Sameach, Happy Purim!

Rabbi Beryl Padorr

Join Us For Daily Minyan

by NORMAN KAHN, JR.

We are making progress toward having a daily minyan in-person each morning! Since we returned to Goldsmith Hall for morning minyan, we have successfully recruited 36 people who have committed to attend at least monthly, 31 who attend at least weekly, and 17 people who attend more than one day each week.

Assuring an in-person minyan every day allows people to know that they can say Kaddish in-person with their Jewish community on the occasion of a yahrtzeit of a loved one. Experiencing a minyan in-person adds meaning not just for those saying Kaddish, but for all who participate.

While we are making progress, we still need members of our congregation to commit to coming to morning minyan on a regular basis. If we know 10 are coming, we can commit to having a minyan for those saying Kaddish, and we can read from the Torah on Mondays, Thursdays and on Chaggim, which we cannot do without an in-person minyan. If you commit to a specific day and can't come, with even a day's advance notice, we can call a backup to replace you.

Beyond the experience of minyan for those who attend, assuring a daily in-person minyan adds meaning to the memories of loved ones whose yahrtzeits are remembered with the Kaddish. Assuring a daily in-person minyan adds value to the culture of our congregation, and to the Jewish spirit of our community.

If you are ready to join the morning minyan community, even if it is only once a quarter or once a month, please let Norm Kahn know at nkahnmd@gmail.com. We need you. Those saying Kaddish need you. Our Jewish community needs you. And it will be a guaranteed meaningful experience for you. Thank you.

It's Time to Renew Rabbi's Employment Contract
