Let Us Share Some Messy Space Together: Anticipating This Year's High Holidays

BY RABBI DAVID M. GLICKMAN

As we look forward to the high holidays, many of our emotions are high from communal tragedies, communal celebrations, as well as our own personal milestones.

On the level of the Jewish people, we have experienced loss, fear and mourning because of October 7th. We have also had moments of this year of tremendous closeness and collective good in reaction to the tragedies. On the synagogue level, we were blessed to celebrate the dedication of a sanctuary over a decade in the making. We have seen the infectious hope of building a new future together.

Thinking about this cacophony of emotion that is inside many of us as individuals, and also what we carry as a community, I am sharing a piece of a stanza from the Israeli poet, Yehuda Amichai whom I often turn to in times of confusion.

I still have within me the lust to search for living water with quiet talk to the rock or with frenzied blows.

Afterwards, silence: no questions, no answers.

Jewish history and world history grind me between them like two grindstones, sometimes to a powder. And the solar year and the lunar year

get ahead of each other or fall behind, leaping, they set my life in perpetual motion.

Sometimes I fall into the gap between them to hide, or to sink all the way down.

This final line for the poet happens during the time of the turning of the year: "Sometimes I fall into the gap between them to hide, or to sink all the way down."

For me, always, the best part of the high holiday season is the simple act of holding space together. Sometimes there is a hug or embrace. Sometimes, a laugh or a mazel tov. Sometimes, tears. Sometimes, song. Sometimes, silence.

The act of sharing space can remind us that when we fall into the "gap between," it can be a "we" and need not be an "I."

I look forward to sharing blessings and hope for a year of renewal, a year of good health and a year of peace. I look forward to sharing space for new beginnings.

My family joins me in wishing you a sweet new year.

PLEASE, BE SEATED

BY VICTOR WISHNA
PRESIDENT

"How good and pleasant it is to be sitting together."

– Psalm 133

At the dedication of our new sacred space, I had the distinct privilege of being the first to offer welcoming remarks. However, as I looked around at the hundreds of us who had gathered, still standing to acknowledge the arrival of our Torah scrolls in the new ark, I realized a quick adlib was needed: "Please...be seated."

I smiled to myself, realizing that this was the first-ever utterance of a phrase that will be repeated thousands of times in this sanctuary over the years to come. And with the seats filled, the sanctuary was finally complete.

At our board retreat several days before, everyone in attendance took a few moments to envision the future they'd like to see at Beth Shalom—six months, a year, five years from now—and distill it down to a single word. The results ranged from "comfort" to "colorful," from "safe" to "strength," from "generous" to "generations." (Also,

"FOMO," which may technically be four words: "Fear Of Missing Out." Discuss.) We then shared one thing—just one, small (or, perhaps, not so small) thing—that we would do to make that future vision more likely.

I revealed the first thing that came into my head: invite more people to our sukkah this year. It seemed like such low-hanging fruit (no, I don't mean the plastic apples and grapes on strings): we have a sukkah, and the point of the holiday is to invite guests to sit inside. There is even a blessing for it: ...

leisheiv basukkah. Yet, that is the first step to building community. Invite. Sit. Talk. (Eat.) Repeat.

Another year (5785) begins, and the Beth Shalom calendar beckons with different ways to connect, from the Yamim Noraim in our new sacred space and musical services to Sukkot (and our new Ohev Sholom sukkah pavilion), from upcoming young-adult and family and Sisterhood events to visiting lecturers and artists. There will be many opportunities for us to pray and learn and dance and eat and drink and sit together. So please...be seated. And invite a friend.

A poster for a "Hachnasat Orchim" event. The title "Hachnasat Orchim" is written in a large, white, cursive font at the top. Below it, in a smaller white font, is "Get ready to welcome your guests for Sukkot". The main title of the event, "DOOR MAT MAKING CLASS", is in large, bold, red capital letters. Below that, the date "TUESDAY, OCTOBER 15TH" is in green, followed by the time "6:30PM-8:30PM" in black. The location "BOARD AND BRUSH" is in green, followed by "13970 SANTA FE TRAIL DR" and "LENEXA, KS 66215" in black. The cost "MEMBERS $35 NON-MEMBERS $45" is in red. At the bottom, it says "THIS EVENT IS OPEN TO THE FIRST 28 REGISTRANTS" in red. A green box on the left contains registration details: "To register you must prepay for this event cash, check or Venmo @bethshalomsisterhoodKC. Once payment is received you will get a link to pick your mat design, there are 120+ designs to choose from!". A red box on the right says "RSVP by October 10". At the very bottom, in small green text, it says "Due to the personalization of this event, there will be no refunds for cancellations".

Yizkor for Commemorating 10/7

BY RABBI TALIA KAPLAN

During the High Holy Day season, in addition to celebrating, soul searching, praying, and shmoozing, we also grieve. Both Yom Kippur and Shemini Atzeret include the Yizkor service, where we remember loved ones. For many at this time of year who are celebrating High Holy Days without a particular loved one for the first time, loss can feel acute. This year adds the additional layer of the one-year anniversary of October 7. In this moment of both individual and communal mourning, I invite you to explore what liturgy works for you. Our Machzor, Lev Shalem, has many different poems and translations in the margins of each page. Perhaps you want to close your eyes and meditate or say the words in your heart. In the spirit of expansive prayer, I am including a new version of El Malei Rachamim written by Rabbi Sharon Cohen Anisfeld to commemorate some of the events of the past year.

El Malei Rachamim

by Rabbi Sharon Cohen Anisfeld

*God full of mercy,
Womb of the world,
In whom there is room enough for all life to flourish
From whom there is blessing enough
For all life to be nourished —*

*We call out to You, broken-hearted.
Shochan bameromim
You who dwell on High Beyond the borders of loyalty and love that make us human — Hearing what we cannot Holding what we cannot Healing what we cannot — Help us.*

*Hamtzei menucha nechona tachat kanfei hashechina
Grant perfect rest
Beneath the wings of Your Presence
To the precious innocent souls —
Israeli and Palestinian, Jewish and Muslim,*

*Christian, Bedouin, and Druze —
Who have lost their lives to the ravages of war during this past year.*

*Shelter those who witnessed unspeakable brutality
And whose walls could not protect them.*

*Carry those who were caught or cornered, unable to escape destruction, degradation, despair.
Lift up those who searched for sustenance or safety, longing for the embrace of home.*

*B'm'alot kedoshom utehorim
K'zohar harakiyah mazhirim
May those souls who are with you now be granted a glimpse of the world as You see it -- shimmering everywhere with the light of Your presence.*

B'Gan Eden tehei menuchatam.

*May they find rest and comfort
In Your holy Garden.*

*Ana ba'al ha Rachamim
Please,
O Master of Mercy,
Yastire'hem b'seter kenafecha l'olamim Vitzror biztror hachaim et nishmotehem Hide them beneath the cover of your wings, forever,
And let their souls be bound up with ours,
Summoning us all to righteousness
And hope renewed.*

Adonai hu nachalatam V'yanuchu v'shalom al mishkavam

*May Your unending love be their inheritance.
May their eternal resting place be
Your peace.
And let us say:
Amen.*

PRS WELCOMES NEW & RETURNING STUDENTS

BY CIVIA WHITE
PRS DIRECTOR

Bruchim HaBaim! Welcome to those who are joining us!

The Polsky Religious School welcomed over 30 new students this school year. Bruchim, blessed, is also how we feel to see our children make new friends, our community grow, and our joy increase.

99% of the post-B'nai Mitzvah class is enrolled in the newly revamped 8th grade Sunday morning program. They meet to study Jewish texts, cook holiday foods, create a startup with an Israeli businessperson, practice spoken Hebrew, and more. The Confirmation Class has been redesigned to meet the needs of 9th and 10th grade students who have busy schedules. This class meets with either Rabbi Glickman or Rabbi Kapan on several Sunday mornings throughout the year to engage in conversations about homelessness, AI, the justice system, food insecurity, and the environment.

Can't make it on Wednesdays? PRS now offers an additional optional hour of learning on Sunday mornings for grades 3-7. Have a Bar/Bat Mitzvah on the horizon? 5th and 6th grade students from both PRS and HBHA meet on Shabbat mornings for lessons with Hazzan Ben-Yehuda, worship with the congregation in our new sanctuary, and fun social programming.

Many of these initiatives came from parent suggestions and recommendations. Thank you, todah rabbah! You are very committed to the Jewish education your children and are building an exciting community here at Beth Shalom. Kol HaKavod! Outstanding!

From my family to yours, have a happy and healthy New Year.

TODAY IS DAY ONE

BY LISA PORTER REEVES
DIRECTOR OF EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Things are in full swing in the Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center! Our students have been hard at work learning and playing for over a month, and I couldn't be happier to be the new director of our community's beloved preschool. As we kicked off the new school year, I invited Diana Kander, a former RFEC parent and public speaker, to present to our staff. Her focus is embracing curiosity and creativity to increase success.

Diana told us that the greatest barrier to creativity and curiosity is success. "The more we know, the less we question," she said adding, "Success keeps us from seeing what is possible." Our school is an amazing place to work and to learn, but I don't ever want us to stop striving to be better for our kids and their families.

Diana also talked with us about setting goals. She said, "Today is Day One." Every day, we are given a fresh start, the opportunity to be better than we were the day before. That idea applies to our school staff as we begin this new era of leadership. It applies to our more than 50 RFEC students who recently began the new school year, and it applies to the entire Jewish community as we are approaching the High Holy Days. Who do we want to become in the new year? How can we do better, and how can we be better? Every day should be Day One as we strive to be our best selves. That's the mentality we are working to maintain at RFEC. How can it apply to you? L'shana tova!

Mazel Tov to Our Bar Mitzvah

Wyatt Coppaken - October 26

Wyatt is the son of Blaine and Jeff Coppaken. He is the oldest brother of Miles and Hayes Coppaken. Wyatt is the grandson of Steve and Toby Chod and Ron and Denise Coppaken. Wyatt attends Overland Trail Middle School. Wyatt loves all things sports, but especially loves basketball. He is an avid fan of the Chiefs, Royals, Atlanta Hawks, and the Arizona State Sun Devils. Wyatt enjoys being active with friends and family. For Wyatt's Tikun Olam project, he partnered with JFS on a healthy food drive. Wyatt's focus was to gather foods that athletes use for "fuel."

BY JILL GOLDSTEIN
SISTERHOOD PRESIDENT

Welcoming guests, Hachnasat Orchim, into your Sukkah is a well-valued mitzvah. Join Sisterhood on October 15th from 6:30pm-8:30pm and prepare to welcome your Sukkot guests by creating your own personalized door mat. There are over 120 options to choose from. To see the designs check out the Board and Brush Doormat Gallery. This event is open to the first 28 registrants. Prepayment is required for this event, once payment has been received you will get an email with instructions and a link to choose your mat. Due to the nature of personalization for this event no refunds will be given. For questions, email Danielle Antes antes.danielle22@gmail.com. RSVP by October 10th.

Warm-Up America kicked off its first community-wide "come and knit" on the first Wednesday of each month. Please join us for the next one on Wednesday, November 6th at 10 am, in Goldsmith Hall (we're not meeting in October due to holidays). Our goal this year is to reach 50 blankets to be donated where needed. If you would prefer to pick up directions and yarn and then knit at home, we welcome your participation. For more information, contact Naomi Silverman at naomisilverman@att.net.

Ready for a fun day? Save November 13 for Beth Shalom Sisterhood's annual Bams For Mams game day in support of Breast Cancer research. There will be brunch, Mah Jongg with your friends and lots of prizes. Hope to see you there! For more information, contact Carol Peltzie at cpeltzie1@gmail.com.

Our Gift Shop hours have officially gone back to non-summer hours. We will be open for business on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 12:30-2:30 pm, Wednesdays from 8-9 am, and on Sundays from 9-noon when school is in session. If you need to book an appointment outside of those hours, contact Connie Simon at stltokc@gmail.com or Jill Goldstein at jgoldstein0127@gmail.com. Come in and check our new "L'Chaim Corner."
