Please Join Us for a Unique Shabbat Experience

BY RABBI DAVID M. GLICKMAN

I would like to invite you to join us for a unique Shabbat with Hadar's Rabbi Shai Held. Studying at the Hadar Institute in New York City has been one of the grounding pillars of my rabbinate. Rabbi Held has been an inspirational teacher and friend for me personally for decades, and I hope that you will consider joining us for this uplifting Shabbat.

On the Shabbat of Nov. 15-16, 2024 for our Kaplan Scholar in Residence Shabbat with Rabbi Shai Held. Rabbi Held is one of the top Jewish thinkers in the United States today and the author of the critically acclaimed new book Judaism is About Love.

Rabbi Shai Held: philosopher, theologian, and Bible scholar-- is President and Dean at the Hadar Institute. He received the prestigious Covenant Award for Excellence in Jewish Education, and has been named multiple times by Newsweek as one of the fifty most influential rabbis in America and by the Jewish Daily Forward as one of the fifty most prominent Jews in the world.

Rabbi Held is the author of Abraham Joshua Heschel: The Call of Transcendence (2013), The Heart of Torah (2017), and Judaism is About Love (2024).

Beth Shalom will be hosting two events for the congregation over Shabbat, and I encourage you to register and come to both.

What Do You Mean, No Holidays?

BY RABBI TALIA KAPLAN

This year, the Hebrew month of Cheshvan begins during the first weekend in November. The full name of the month is “Marcheshvan.” Literally translated as “the Eight Month,” Marcheshvan has taken on an additional meaning due to word play ... “mar” means bitter in Hebrew. Given the lack of holidays in Cheshvan, people have taken to calling it “Bitter Cheshvan!”

The change of pace in Cheshvan actually offers an opportunity — what are the ways in which we want to grow Jewishly, especially coming out of the holiday season? How might we want to relate to our Judaism on a “normal” day? During Cheshvan, I look forward to getting into the swing of things guest-teaching our 8th graders, brainstorming around new opportunities for clergy-congregant housed partnerships, and building out my own Jewish mindfulness practice. I look forward to hearing what Cheshvan has in store for you!

Legacy (Planned Giving) Gift Committee – Leadership Transition

BY HAROLD KASEFF

Financial obligations to organizations are commonly summarized into two categories; short-term and long-term. At Congregation Beth Shalom, short-term responsibilities are currently provided by dues, fundraisers, day-to-day donations, and financial support coming from our endowment funds.

Relative to long-term commitments, Congregation Beth Shalom looks toward interest income derived from the endowment fund and Legacy Gifts from you, our congregants. Legacy Giving contributions are gifts to charitable organizations, left by donors after death, through their wills or estate plans. We are immensely grateful for Legacy Gifts coming from families in our congregation.

A bit of history about our Congregation Beth Shalom Legacy Gift Program:

About 20 years ago, community Jewish philanthropist Stan Bushman donated $750,000 to assist all local Jewish organizations in establishing and building their own respective legacy gift programs. This tremendous boost was to incentivize each organization to establish specific goals relative to number of legacy gifts and, when met within specific time frames, the organization would receive cash funds during the three different three-year-segments.

Prior to our consolidation with Congregation Ohev

Sholom, both congregations were original participating organizations utilizing Stan Bushman's gift. During the 20-plus-year period, Congregation Ohev Sholom's program had been managed under leadership by Harold Kaseff, Audrey Asher, and Lori Klarfeld and Congregation Beth Shalom's program had been led by Rabbi Alan Cohen, Gary Cortes, Rabbi David Glickman, Harold Kaseff, and Marc Hammer. We are indebted and exceedingly appreciative for leadership of the critical work these dedicated volunteers have given over the years.

Recognizing importance of the Legacy Giving Program, the Board of Directors of Congregation Beth Shalom incorporated the Legacy Giving Committee into the bylaws as a required standing committee. And now, we are proud to announce that Bob Grant has assumed leadership of the Legacy Gift Program at Congregation Beth Shalom.

Bob's experience traverses financial and non-profit worlds. Bob graduated from Pennsylvania State with a degree in accounting. With a CPA certificate, he later worked in industry and the non-profit world in various management roles. He's served on several boards including Menorah Legacy Foundation, JCRB/AJC, and the JCC where he served as president. In his off time, he mentors non-profit leaders and is assisting Jewish Archives.

Craft Class with Sisterhood

Our doormat-making session brought creativity and community together, as participants crafted unique designs while embracing the beautiful mitzvah of welcoming guests—Hachnasat Orchim—into our homes and sukkahs. It was a wonderful way to stay connected to this cherished tradition during Sukkot.

Sisterhood Donates Nearly 3,000 Diapers to Happy Bottoms

Beth Shalom Sisterhood's Fall 2024 Diaper Drive has ended with nearly 3,000 diapers being donated to Happy Bottoms.

An Attitude of Gratitude

BY LISA PORTER REEVES
DIRECTOR OF EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

This time of year has me counting my blessings, both personally and professionally. I try to have an 'attitude of gratitude' all year long, but it becomes a bigger focus every November. I strive to be an example of kindness and generosity in my daily life, just as my parents have always modeled, and I do my best to acknowledge the kindness and generosity of others. I recognize and appreciate what a special school I am leading, and I understand what a special community surrounds us. I have been welcomed warmly by so many people, and I have seen firsthand just how generous and caring people in our Beth Shalom community can be.

One example of this kindness is Pam Gerson, President of Certified Safety Manufacturing, Inc. Numerous members of Pam's family, across multiple generations, are and have been active members of Beth Shalom. As we began the school year, Pam overwhelmed me with her thoughtful generosity of both time and resources. RFEC now finds itself with fully loaded, brand new backpacks for the school office and each classroom.

Our backpacks contain anything and everything we might need to care for our children in case of a medical emergency. Pam went above and beyond to take care of us. I am so grateful, not just to her, but to all the members of our community who have embraced me graciously and shared their kindness and generosity with our preschool in so many ways.
